

French Gain In New Somme Thrust

Resignation Of Cabinet May Pave Way For Greece's Entrance In War

Car Companies Reject Proposal To Settle Strike

ANOTHER VILLAGE IS TAKEN FROM GERMANS

London, Sept. 13.—Instead of resting on the ground won in yesterday's great attack north of the Somme, the French continued their thrust last night, capturing the village of Bouchavesnes and a wooded area nearby.

Bouchavesnes lies east of the Bapaume-Peronne road, cut in yesterday's drive and its capture with adjacent territory apparently clinches French possession of this main highway to Peronne.

Combes is now cut off from the south and in a dangerous salient, while General French is in a position for a stroke from the north at Peronne, which appears seriously threatened by the new French advance, one of the most important made in any single operation since the Somme offensive began.

The British, who hold the line northwest of Combes, are maintaining a firm grip on Ginchy, but as yet apparently have made no attempt to gain further ground. The British war office today reported the general situation unchanged.

In Macedonia, the entente offensive is developing along the western sector. Athens announced a joint advance by French and Serbian troops who have captured Soravitz, near Florina, while Paris reports important progress, particularly a considerable gain by the Serbians near the Ostrova.

The Zaimis cabinet in Greece is out of office with the acceptance of resignations by King Constantine. This is regarded in many quarters as preliminary to Greece's abandonment of neutrality and her entrance into the war on the side of the entente.

The German war office declares operations against the Bulgarians in Southern Dobruja are proceeding methodically.

It also announces that German troops have been sent into Transylvania, where they are in contact with the Rumanians who are advancing in the Hermannstadt and Huetzing districts.

Today's French official statement reports that Italian troops are engaged along the Italian front in the Balkans, and are operating west of the Struma near Bulkova. Berlin does not admit the successes in the Carpathians claimed yesterday by the Russians.

On the contrary it declares the Russian attack made along a wide front, was brilliantly repulsed. Petrograd today reports that the heights taken by the Russian troops, were held against counter-attacks.

Athens, Sept. 12. (Via London, Sept. 13; delayed)—King Constantine has accepted the resignation of Premier Zaimis and his cabinet.

The belief is entertained in the entente capitals that the retirement of the Zaimis ministry is preliminary to the entrance of Greece in the war with the allies. Recent despatches from Berlin and Vienna show that there, also, it is regarded as probable Greece soon will abandon neutrality and join the entente powers. The precise causes which led to the resignation of the ministry have not been disclosed on account of the exceptionally rigid censorship. It is believed in London M. Zaimis' resignation was due to the fact that he accepted the premiership on the understanding that he was to maintain neutrality and in view of the Bulgarian occupation of Greek territory had found this impossible.

Up to the time of the first dispatch announcing that M. Zaimis had presented his resignation, his retirement was unexpected, for it was understood the premier had assumed dictatorial powers and was in an exceptionally strong position.

After the fall of the Venizelos cabinet last October on account of the king's disagreement with its policy favoring intervention in the war with the Allies, M. Zaimis was called on to form a cabinet. He announced a policy of armed neutrality. The cabinet resigned in November, but in June, M. Zaimis was again placed at the head of the government. Although advocating neutrality, he was regarded as having a predisposition toward the entente.

French Capture Another Village
Paris, Sept. 13.—The French captured the village of Bouchavesnes, on the Somme front.

The official announcement of today says the village, which is in the region of Combes, was taken from the Germans last evening.

The French also took by assault a wood 600 yards east of the road from Peronne to Bethune. On the Verdun front the French made progress in the northern part of Vaux-Chapitre wood.

Took Entire First Line
Paris, Sept. 13.—The French infantry started a vigorous offensive yesterday, along a front of six kilometers north of the Somme, from the Combes region to the river, and in half an hour took an entire first line of German trenches, says the official communication issued last night.

Another portion of the French forces carried a system of trenches along the road from Bethune to Peronne. Prisoners to the number of 1,500 had been taken when the report was filed. Elsewhere on the front there was only artillery activity.

Paris, Sept. 13.—Notwithstanding the stout resistance of the

GERMANS ARE TO MAINTAIN THE PRESENT U-BOAT POLICY

Claim Russians Ordered To Kill German Prisoners

Berlin, Sept. 13.—(Wireless to Sayville)—"Russian methods of warfare are described by several eye-witnesses," says the Overseas News Agency.

"An Austrian sergeant major who escaped from the Russians, reports that soldiers of the 22nd and 23rd Siberian rifles told him three German infantrymen who were captured were taken behind the lines and stabbed on command of Russian officers. A non-commissioned officer of the Cossacks said a Russian order had been issued to kill prisoners.

"Three Russian soldiers of the Fifth Turks, who are prisoners, said the commander of their company repeatedly ordered them not to take German prisoners but to kill them.

SCOURGES LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Steuenville, O., Sept. 13.—The liquor traffic came in for another scourging last night by Dr. Ernest Smith, secretary of the temperance board, at the North East Ohio Methodist Episcopal Conference. He declared "any girl would be better off married to a Pekinese pup than to a drinking wart of a boy."

G. M. McConnell, Lakeside, in an address on the country church, said:

"It is the duty of country preachers to preach the true word and do something to prevent ministers from degenerating into a race of chicken eaters."

WILSON GOES TO SUMMER WHITE HOUSE

New London, Sept. 13.—President Wilson left this morning for the summer White House at Long Branch, N. J.

Physicians attending his sister, Mrs. Anne E. Howe, whose critical illness brought the president here, advised him that from now on Mrs. Howe would be constantly under the influence of opiates, and would be unable to recognize him and that she might live for several days.

Should there be a sudden turn for the worse, he plans to return. Up to the present Mr. Wilson has paid practically no attention to his campaign for re-election, but unless he is summoned back here within the next few days he will hold several political conferences later this week.

While there was no marked change overnight in Mrs. Howe's condition, she is gradually growing weaker, it was said today.

MORE VICTIMS CLAIMED BY FATAL TUNNEL

Cleveland, O., Sept. 13.—One man was fatally injured and sixteen others hurt when the roof of a water tunnel being dug under the floor of Lake Erie caved in early today. It was in another section of the same tunnel that nineteen men were killed by a gas explosion several weeks ago.

Berlin, Tuesday, Sept. 12.—(via London, Sept. 13.)—The weeks which have passed since the appointment of Field Marshal Von Hindenburg as chief of the general staff have been marked by almost complete cessation of the discussion in regard to the resumption of the submarine warfare on the old or a more vigorous basis. Non-partisan newspapers who are in touch with leading statesmen and politicians, express the opinion that for the present, at least, there will arise no question of a change in submarine policy.

The administration of Von Bethmann-Hollweg now feels itself fully in control of the situation in this respect. A controversy over the methods of the food dictatorship has now supplanted the submarine issue in the conservative and other newspapers which are opposed to the chancellor.

These newspapers are engaged in arguing with Adolph Von Batocki, head of the food regulation board, the pros and cons of compulsory production as opposed to an increase or abolition of maximum prices as the method of enlarging the production of foodstuffs. Herr Von Batocki has declared himself a convinced opponent of the theory that the food problem could be best solved by compulsory methods; that is, by prescribing what farmers should plant. But he also has little sympathy with the demand for increase or removal of maximum prices to encourage production.

Accordingly the present system will continue. Should the submarine situation remain as at present and should he be assured that no revival of the underwater campaign is contemplated, Ambassador Gerard may take advantage of the opportunity for a trip to the United States, as he feels the need of a vacation. The ambassador hopes that before the completion of the prolonged negotiations which he is conducting for relief of interned civilians in Germany and England, as a result of his efforts two proposals are under consideration. One of them calls for a general exchange of civilians under parole not to serve during the war. The alternative plan is the release of all men over 45 years and others unfit for military service. These plans are now before the British government, and the acceptance of either would mean the success of a difficult task of humanitarian diplomacy.

Hughes' Trip Longest Of Any Nominee

New York, Sept. 13.—Charles E. Hughes ended his first presidential campaign trip here today. He reached the city at an early hour, went to a hotel and later will depart for his summer home at Bridgehampton, L. I.

The trip was one of the longest, in time and mileage, ever taken by a presidential nominee. Mr. Hughes left here on the night of August 5, and traveled 39 days. His itinerary took him from Portland, Maine, to San Diego, California, from Canada to within sight of the Mexican border. He visited 25 states, spoke at all the chief centers of population in the country, exclusive of the south and including the capitals of ten states, and traveled 11,491 miles by rail. In addition he averaged more than four hundred miles a week by motor, or about 2,500 miles, making the total mileage of his trip approximately 14,000 miles. Most of his trip was made over 15 railroad systems. Since his departure from New York Mr. Hughes has undergone almost every experience that usually befalls a candidate, and many were out of the ordinary. He has donned a miner's togie at Butte and gone 3,000 feet

Russian Chief of Staff Sees Burden of War Resting On Germany

In an interview with a correspondent at Russian headquarters, Gen. Michael Alexieff, chief of staff of all the Russian armies, said that the Austrians are badly demoralized and that the burden of the war is now beginning to rest on the Germans.

"It will require 100,000 Germans to fill the gaps in the Austrian army," said the Russian commander.

Berlin, Sept. 13.—(By wireless to Sayville)—Dr. Krum Heller, a Mexican Diplomatist, with proper credentials, was compelled by the British to cross the Atlantic three times before proceeding to Switzerland, according to the Overseas Agency.

MANY CITIES SEEK PLANT

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—Delegations from nearly all the principal cities of the east and south gathered at the navy department today to urge the advantages of sites offered for the $11,000,000 government armor plate plant authorized in the new naval appropriation bill.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Police were called to quell disputes at the polls in several wards at today's primary election and made a number of arrests.

A heavy vote was cast in nearly every Republican ward in the city during the early hours while the vote in most of the Democratic strongholds was lighter than expected.

Election officials estimated that not more than 325,000 votes would be cast in Cook county.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Their campaign for nomination completed, Republican and Democratic candidates at the Illinois state primary today waited for the count of ballots, which will mean success or defeat for them.

While there has been a spirited contest over virtually every state office nomination, the struggle for the Republican gubernatorial nomination overshadowed the others. This was a three-cornered battle between Frank O. Lowden, backed by the regular Republican organization; State Senator Morton D. Hull, championed by the faction led by former Governor Charles S. Deneen and Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, who worked independently of any state or factional backing. Gov. Dunne, opposed for the Democratic nomination for state executive by William B. Brinton, asserted that he had no fear of defeat through the eleven-hour endorsement of his rival by the Sullivan faction and the regular Cook county Democratic organization.

Patrick J. Lacey, attorney general of Illinois, was unopposed for re-nomination on the Democratic ticket. Charles F. Fuller, Republican congressman from the twelfth district, and John C. McFadden, Republican congressman from the 13th district, have no Republican opposition at the primary and no Democratic opponent for the November election. In the Second district Rev. Melbourne P. Boynton is contesting the re-nomination of Congressman James R. Mann, Republican leader in Illinois, and is being backed by the Illinois Anti-Saloon League forces.

In the Sixth district former U. S. Senator William Lorimer is making an effort to come back politically by getting the Republican congressional nomination. He is opposed by Arthur W. Fulton and five other candidates. Fulton has the backing of the regular organization. In the Eleventh congressional district Congressman Ira C. Copley is opposed by Frank W. Shepherd, of Elgin, and Erwin E. Wood, of Plainfield, for the Republican nomination. Clifford Ireland and Joseph V. Graft are engaged in an exciting struggle for the Republican nomination in the Sixteenth district.

PAGE RENOMINATED
Burlington, Vt., Sept. 13.—Returns from the first direct primary held yesterday in Vermont, showed today that Carrall S. Page, Republican, of Hyde Park, had been renominated for the United States senate by a vote fifty percent greater than the aggregate vote of his two opponents, Governor Charles W. Gates and former Governor Allen M. Fletcher. With all but 58 of the 284 election precincts heard from the vote was:
Page, 24,180; Fletcher, 8,030; Gates, 6,550.

REFUSE TO NEGOTIATE WITH UNION

New York, Sept. 13.—The Interborough Rapid Transit and the New York Railways Company formally rejected today the public service commission's recommendation for a strike settlement made yesterday. The two companies, controlling the subway, elevated and "Green car" surface lines, declined to hold further conferences with representatives of the union and announced that it is their intention to continue to operate their lines on the present basis.

Brooklyn detectives, it was disclosed, are investigating a reported plot to damage property of the Interborough with an explosive. A cylindrical package, four inches by three in dimension, was found by a track walker near the Borough Hall Subway station in Brooklyn late last night. It contained, according to the bureau of combustibles, dynamite of the powerful kind generally used in underground operations. Officials regarded the explosive as so dangerous that they threw it into the East river.

The reply of the traction companies, the strikers through Wm. B. Fitzgerald, general organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Electric and Street Railway Employees informed the commission the strikers could not accede to the request of the commission to bring the strike to an immediate end in view of the stand taken by his traction company. He accepted, in behalf of the union, the recommendation that the questions at issue be submitted to arbitration.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Wheelerburg, O., Sept. 9, 1916.
At the regular meeting of Empire Grange No. 1223 the following resolutions were adopted for Sister Minnie Schneider whose demise occurred August 31, 1916.

Whereas, The Great and Supreme Ruler of the universe has in His infinite wisdom removed from among us our beloved and worthy Sister, Mrs. Minnie Schneider,

And Whereas, The long and intimate relation with her in our Grange makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation for her,

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved husband and family we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be over ruled for good by him who doth all things well, and our prayer to the Almighty God that that will draw the broad mantle of thy love and affection around Brother Fred and his little family and give them grace and strength to bear this great sorrow.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the record of our Grange, a copy be printed in our local paper; and a copy be forwarded to the bereaved family.

BLAZING LOVE
Virginia Pearson and Louise Huff at Columbia Tonight.

The artistic ability of Virginia Pearson, the noted stage actress now appearing under William Fox production in motion pictures is no longer displayed than in the picture "Blazing Love." Here Mrs. Pearson as Margaret Walsh is married to an elderly husband, Morgan Delafield, a part acted by Frank Burdock, another stage actor who recently has joined the movie ranks under Mr. Fox's guidance.

Virginia Pearson, who acts the part of Margaret Walsh in the William Fox photodrama of heart interest "Blazing Love," has to do much loveliness during the picture plot which covers the character's whole life story. She married twice in the story, and breaks in love with a third man.

Louise Huff appears for the first time under William Fox production in the recent release, "Blazing Love," in which she acts a principal part with Virginia Pearson. Miss Huff already is widely known in the moving picture world, as well as in stage life. She played a feminine lead in the stage production of Ben Hur, and will be remembered on the screen in such dramas as "Marse Zerkow," "Old Homestead," and

At The Exhibit

The big feature for today is a five part Mutual Masterpiece entitled "The Dead Alive," featuring the celebrated film star Marguerite Courtot. It is a story of twin sisters, Mary and Jessie, whose father is employed in a gambling house. Jessie is admired by Stuyvesant, a young millionaire. She first declines his offer of marriage when she learns her father is a gambler, but later consents. The father is sent to prison, also the owner of the den, who is released after three years. He then forces Mary, a chorus girl, to secure money from Jessie by threatening to reveal Mary's stage career and her father's disgrace. Jessie is killed in an auto accident. The gambler wins Stuyvesant's friendship and tells him he can make it possible through spiritualistic powers, to see his dead wife. His plan is to rob the millionaires safe while Mary poses as Jessie. Mary warns Stuyvesant. An automatic device attached to the safe kills the intended robber. After Mary reveals the family secrets to Stuyvesant they marry.

"Advertisers" is a Falstaff comedy filled with laughs.

At the Arcana

Tonight is shown the last chapter of "Peg O' the Ring" in two reels, entitled "Retribution." If you have seen other chapters of this serial be sure and see the final chapter tonight.

Tonight is the starting time of that new 20 week serial "Liberty" which will be at the Arcana every Wednesday in two reels. "Liberty" will be presented through a brilliant and notable cast headed by Mario Walscamp, Jack Holt and Eddie Polo. Supported by others almost as well known including Bertram Grassby, G. Raymond Nye, L. M. Wells, Maude Emory and hundreds of expert rough riders and trained military men. In the serial—Mexican border raids; thrilling dare-devil deeds of heroism; love interest that alone would make a great picture; American soldiers; Texas rangers; Mexican bandits; a lavish production never surpassed in thrills, realism or intense human interest. "She Was Santa Vampire" is a Joker comedy of many funny incidents.

Great Indian Feature at the Temple Tonight

What is considered by Manager Potts as the greatest western feature ever shown in Portsmouth, will be portrayed at the Arcana theatre tonight in that tense dramatic offering entitled "The Battle of Elderbush," a truly wonderful Indian play where whole bands of the Red Men are wiped out by the brave settlers. It is a thriller—don't miss it. Every scene contains Indians, cowboys or settlers who are born fighters. Three thousand feet of tense pictures. You will miss the best Western feature in years if you miss this feature attraction.

Besides the Western there will be three comedies, the leader being a Sis Hopkins comedy. Sis Hopkins is still making them all

Mother Is Dying

W. E. Mann, who lives on Twentieth street, was called to Otway Tuesday evening by the serious illness of his aged mother, Mrs. George Mann, who is lying at the point of death, with typhoid fever. Mr. Mann reached a point beyond the Hayman farm on the West Side Tuesday evening when a machine he was in had a puncture. He was later picked up by another auto party and hurriedly conveyed to the bedside of his mother.

Byron's London Home.

No. 125 Piccadilly was, in the year of Waterloo, the home to which, from his bachelor chambers in the Albany, Lord Byron went with his bride, Miss Milbank.

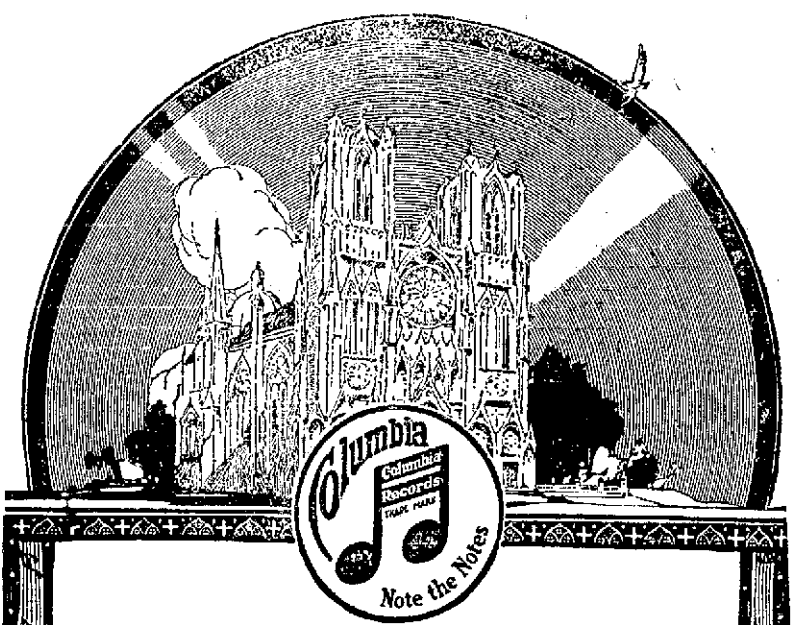

Almost exactly a twelvemonth later Lady Byron quitted the house and never saw her husband again. It was while living there that the two poets, Byron and Scott, met. In a letter to Moore Sir Walter wrote how "report had prepared me to meet a man of peculiar habits and a quick temper," but "I found Lord Byron in the highest degree courteous and even kind."

Their meetings, "almost daily," took place at Mr. Murray's in Albemarle street, and once at Long's hotel in Bond street.—London Chronicle.

The Solemn Grandeur of Sacred Music

IN all the realm of music, there is nothing so expressive of human aspirations, hopes and emotions as the hymns of prayer, praise and devotion with which our tongue is so richly blessed.

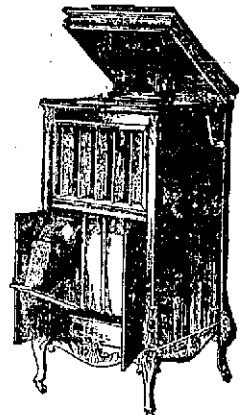

This highest form of music is fittingly interpreted on these three beautiful Columbia Records:

- A-5802, 12-inch, $1.25—The Messiah (Handel) Hallelujah Chorus—Columbia Oratorio Chorus. The Crucifixion (Stainer) Flung Wide the Gates—Columbia Oratorio Chorus.
- A-5760, 12-inch, $1.50—Nearer My God to Thee (Lowell Mason)—Oscar Seagle, Baritone and Columbia Stellar Quartette. Lead Kindly Light (John Dykes) Oscar Seagle, Baritone.
- A-1097, 10-inch, 75c—Still, Still With Thee (Gerrish) Columbia Stellar Quartette. Unaccompanied. Just As I Am (Brailbury) Columbia Stellar Quartette. Unaccompanied.

In tone and modulation, truth and feeling, these records are worthy in every way of the highest standard of Columbia recording.

The "music-note" trade-mark always stands for the best and best-rendered and reproduced in music, whether it is sacred or other music. Let your dealer prove it today.

AT THE FRONT OF THEIR KIND

Two representatives of the state are in Portsmouth, this week, examining the several building associations and are about ready to make their reports. Officially, because the law is conservative and discreet and offers no specific comparisons, because it would avoid any appearance of being invidious, they will say the institutions are exceedingly well managed and so far as outward evidence goes, altogether sound and profitable. Privately they proclaim them the best conducted in the state, the directors giving them far closer attention than is usual and the accounts being kept with absolute accuracy and effective diligence.

It is a fine compliment and altogether the better because it is so well deserved. There has been little disposition to exploit the associations. They are operated at moderate expense and have been held steadily to the purpose for which the law authorizing their creation primarily intends, placing means at the disposition of individuals so that they may accumulate possessions and own homes. It is mainly because of this steadfastness, because they have taken a fine civic pride in their responsibilities that Portsmouth has become distinct as a city of home owners. We doubt if there is another place that surpasses her in this respect.

There is another point to their credit that calls for special commendation, which is that they have not solely encouraged savings and thrift on the part of the people, but they have actually and effectively promoted these most vital of all community virtues. Persistently continuously and aggressively they have set forth their own advantageous and made it clear to everyone comparatively easy it is to make some provision against the coming of setback and old age. In this respect their task was not by any means as persuading people the worth of owning their own homes, but they kept everlastingly at it and to them must go a great part of the glory for establishing for Portsmouth the record of the fast growing city in savings that there is to be found anywhere. Let it be said right here that in this one respect is Portsmouth singular in another respect and that is whole heartedly and with equal aggressiveness have her banks joined in the most worthy cause of promoting savings.

HELPING OTHERS HELP YOU

Last year, though they came from only one section of the county, and that a limited one, farmers made a most creditable parade during Korn Carnival week. This year two or three most energetic ones have set out to make their parade feature bigger and better than ever. It is to be hoped they will succeed. They deserve and ought to meet not alone with encouragement, but actual and active co-operation. In helping others one helps himself, and there was never a clearer demonstration of this truism than in this particular matter. One of the main reasons why agriculture is not as highly developed in this country as in Europe is the farmer is too much isolated. He doesn't live even in a class, but altogether to himself. Contact and fellowship will prove of the highest benefit to himself and to those in the same pursuit. The greatest stimulant to knowledge and progress is companionship and emulation, pride and honor in one's pursuit. If the farmers should make a big demonstration during carnival week it will be an inspiration to the whole community, it will be their boast and it will be joy of son and daughter, who will glory in the fine showing made by their dads for the dear old farm's sake. There's always a whole lot of complaint that the children won't stay on the farm, but they will stay fast enough if the farm is made what it ought to be, not a place of endless drudgery and eternal loneliness, but a live, palpitating interest, whose mission is as high and important and full of accomplishment as any other.

Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait has received official information from the attorney general that he has both the means and the power to break up automobile speeding on the country roads. This raises the question of what is Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait now going to do about it. Will he proceed to a vigorous and effective enforcement of the law, or will he be merely content to appoint some under-strapper and banger-on sleuth, merely that he may get another swipe at the public treasury? Have known such things as the latter to occur.

Mr. Marshall is going to be bifurcated today, that the great Democratic party has done him the honor, altogether unceremoniously of renominating him for vice president. As an agreeable and gracious Democrat we expect to see some express proper surprise and gratification over the distinction.

As best we can figure it out, City Engineer Sam Harper's explanation of why a sewer was built at city expense on private land, managed by Sam Harper, individual, makes a bad matter worse. Little matters of law requirements don't count at all. As for council it will, doubtless, feel highly complimented to be informed that it has frequently and often resorted to have public work done that was long prior completed.

And Democratic free trade keeps on playing its awful havoc with the iron trade. Steel common sold this week only a little above $104, while just think, under protection administration it brought as much as $8.

THE AUGURIES

MOVIES SWEEPING THE BOARD

The rise of the movies and the decay of the drama is, possibly, nowhere more visibly illuminated than in the case of the Dramatic Mirror. This publication was ever the organ and authority of the stage. A while back some of its owners rose to appreciation of the part motion pictures were playing in the public mind and began giving attention thereto. Gradually the movie encroached upon the dramatic features and space of the journal until there was more of the former than the latter. A part of the owners were displeased with this change and dissent arose in the management and accentuated until last week, when there was an open rupture, the exponents of the drama retiring and the champions of the movies assuming full control and ownership. More significant even than these shifts is the fact that the new management is considering the changing of the name of the publication to the Moving Picture and Dramatic Weekly.

This leads to the thought that there is little popular conception to what mammoth proportions the moving picture has grown, both as a business and an amusement feature. Annually five hundred million dollars is expended in producing "plays." Many more millions are invested in play houses. What a wholesome lesson one might learn from this if he would. All the millions invested, the millions required for production and the more millions for operating expenses are made up by nickles and dimes. It is seemingly incredible, but the figures and the regular demonstration every day to millions of people prove it beyond the peradventure of doubt. Isn't it apparent that if everybody every time they went to a movie would lay aside a nickel or a dime we would soon surpass all the nations of the earth combined in savings, individually we could hold our heads high above them when it came to a matter of money. We are doing something like that now, not because we are saving so much, but because we are making so much and so busy at it we can't find time to spend all we make.

There is said to be much grumbling and growling about national Republican headquarters over the "swat-the-fly" campaign Hughes made in his swing across the country and back. Even the Cincinnati Enquirer, whose sympathies are altogether with Hughes, is the first paper to give publicity to the gossip that the national chairman is going.

The Bluefield Telegraph thinks the reported seizing of American schooners by England will cause great indignation in Milwaukee. Why not Cincinnati as well?

Gasoline has gone down another cent and every automobile owner thinks he is making money on his car.

It never rains but it pours. The Peerless has been circusless for years and now she finds two sawdust shows treading on each others heels to get here.

BED TIME TALES

By CLARA INGRAM JUDSON

The Beavers Hear A Noise

BEERY AND LITTLE BEAVERS wanted to stay out by the dam all night. They liked to swim around in the cool water and better still, they liked to dive down and nibble at the juicy water plants that rocked and swayed along the bottom of the dam. But Father Beaver felt safer to have them near him, so they obediently followed along when Father and Mother Beaver left the dam in search of just the right place to build the home.

"You see, Bushy," explained Father Beaver as they trotted beside him, "you're plenty old enough to have a lesson in home-making. And you'll find it interesting too. You look around here as I do and see if you can find a good place to build."

But dear me! They didn't any of them have a chance to hunt long, for just at that very minute Father Beaver stumbled on a spot that was exactly right for a home—just exactly right! Think of that!

"I declare," said he happily, "there's not a thing the matter with this place except that the water is too low. And after we get that dam repaired the water will come up here just as it should! Aren't we lucky? And now for work!"

But Mother Beaver had other plans. "I don't see," she said, after they were done examining over the advantages of the place where the new home was to be, "why you're in such a hurry to build. You know building is a lot of work. And when you once get started, you don't like to stop for anything!"

Of course Mother Beaver wanted to do what Father Beaver thought best, so she said, "Very well, if you don't mind old clothes, I don't see why you can't go on with your work. But hurry! You had better pick out the first little tree that Father Beaver pointed for the dam before a soft, 'swish! swish!' in the water made them run for a hiding place. Somebody was coming! What could it be? Did you want to do?"

How Father Beaver did laugh at that!

How Father Beaver did laugh at that! He rolled on the ground and he laughed till his poor sides ached. "Clothes! This time of year?" he finally found breath to say. "Just listen! Why, Mother Beaver, don't you start worrying about clothes! I don't care a rap if we don't get new outfits till frost! We're comfortable enough as we are. No sir! We want to get our building done while the weather's fine."

Of course Mother Beaver wanted to do what Father Beaver thought best, so she said, "Very well, if you don't mind old clothes, I don't see why you can't go on with your work. But hurry! You had better pick out the first little tree that Father Beaver pointed for the dam before a soft, 'swish! swish!' in the water made them run for a hiding place. Somebody was coming! NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

By O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Sept. 13.—Charles Mitchell, of Alibeth House, Hove, Sussex, England, is in town for a few days stopping at the Woodstock. If this means nothing to you it might be said that Grandfather Charles Mitchell, landlord over an estate of 7,000 acres in the South Downs, is here.

But anyway he is the same Charles Mitchell, who bought John L. Sullivan in the original Madison Square Garden back in 1883. But not one of his friends recognized him. He weighs 156 pounds—just 43 pounds more than his fighting weight.

He is not an English farmer with a waist line unsuited to his build and he has a general rosy and benevolent look. Nothing seems quite the same to him. The dapper old crowd—such as are left—are now mostly grapholids or baldheads and many

The San Diego Panama exposition, opened two years ago, is still running, and, what is more remarkable, making money.

Greece continues to play fast and loose and she will find that, as always, a losing game.

Thirteen is popularly supposed to be a hoodoo number, but we can't see that Rumania has improved the situation a bit by coming in and making it fourteen.

The Russians have again bitten off Mush and are hoping it won't prove too hot for them to hold this time.

How would you like to own a big league club for about a month now, one that is playing around near the top?

Just because there is a Nutt prominent in the membership of the American Professors of Dancing Association, some newspapers pretend to think they see where some of the outlandish terpsichorean convolutions come from.

For a man that can't set squarely in his job, that New Hampshire fellow, Frank P. Rublee, we believe, is his name, can yet hang on more tenaciously than any other pup-sucker we ever knew.

Now, just tell us, where on earth can you beat such weather?

country-fol girl—a breath from the west, and she was just beginning to be alive.

The crowd was noisy, and she, too, entered into the spirit of the place. Finally she stood upon a chair with a glass aloft and shouted: "I'm a wild prairie flower. Growing wilder every hour. Nobody ever cultivated me. I'm wild."

Horrible Note.—An Ohio woman found a gold ring on a live railish and Frank J. Price, the hustling city editor of the Morning Telegraph, says he had a similar experience when he saw a gold ring on a "dead bent."

Just when it seemed certain that the occult movement in this nation would lose the last trace of philosophical and scientific teachings as exemplified by the ancients of Egypt there came to New York the other day Hach Mastain El Dorado Can, the son of old man Can, formerly King of Talce tribe of Mexico.

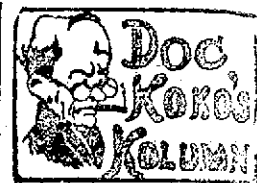

With tears in his eyes and his hair in braids, the hierophant of the mysteries of Isis frankly rattled on the early Christian fanatics, describing their disorderly conduct regarding ancient culture and hermetic science. They ripped up the teachings of the ancients and tossed them down the prehistoric dust chute.

Fortunately the great great great great great great granddaddy of Hach Mastain El Dorado Can nailed some of these teachings and hid them in his garage. They descended through the ages as the property of the Can Can family, and after years and years and years New York is to get them verbatim.

In other words, although the occult movement is kidding, the Can family, Rush and Tin, don't blame it on Broadway. Hush, dear reader, the hierophant is speaking: "I am the King of the Toltecs. Tomorrow I could ascend the throne. I fear nothing. Ah! I see the Giants tied Boston today!"

Tired Women

A verse said to be an epitaph on a tombstone is an English churchyard is as follows:

Here lies a poor woman who always was tired. She lived in a home where the bed wasn't hired. Her last words on earth were: "Dear friends, I am going Where washing ain't done, no sweeping, nor sewing; But everything there is exact to my wishes. For where they don't eat there's no washing of dishes; I go where loud anthems will always be ringing. But having no voice I'll get clear of the singing. Don't mourn for me now, dear mourn for me never. I'm going to do nothing forever and ever."

He Kept His Job

One of the bosses at Baldwin's locomotive works had to lay off an argumentative Irishman named Pat, so he saved discussion by putting the discharge in writing. The next day Pat was missing, but a week later the boss was passing through his shop and he saw him again at his lathe. Going up to the Irishman he demanded fiercely: "Didn't you get my letter?" "Yes, sir, Oi did," said Pat. "Did you read it?" "Sure, sure, Oi read it inside and Oi read it outside," said Pat, "and on the inside you said I was fired, and on the outside you said 'Return to Baldwin Locomotive Works in five days.'"

Nothing To Worry About

"Marry," said he to his wife when the awful truth dawned upon him, "I have swallowed my collar button." "That's all right," responded wife in a tone of evident satisfaction. "There's nothing to worry about." "Nothing to worry about?" responded father. "No you—"

"That's what I said," interrupted little wife. For once in your life you know where you've put it." Philadelphia Telegraph.

It was while they were building the Panama canal. An excited Chinese laborer dashed into one of the foreman's tents.

The Cub Reporter

"Never state as a fact anything you are not certain about," the chief editor warned the new reporter. In such cases use the words 'alleged,' 'claimed,' 'reported,' 'rumored,' and so on."

And then this paragraph appeared in the society notes of the paper: "It is rumored that a card party was given yesterday by a number of reputed ladies. Mrs. Smith, a girl says, was hostess. It is alleged that the guests, with the exception of Mrs. Belinger, who says she left from Leavitt's Junction, were all from here. Suit Is Filed

Contractor John A. Grimes has brought suit against the city in Squire John W. Byron's court to recover $91.93 which he alleges is due him for work, labor and material expended.

SETTLED OUT OF COURT

The trouble involving the disposal of 60 cement sacks belonging to Contractor Buck Kennedy was settled out of the mayor's court, Wednesday. Jim Allen, a carpenter, who had sold the sacks to Henry Prescott, reimbursed Kennedy to the amount of their true value, $7. Ed Little, it developed, was an innocent party to the transaction, he simply delivering the sacks to Mr. Prescott for Allen and receiving no pay for his work.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Sept. 13.—With trading again far in excess of 1,000,000 shares today's market recorded several new maximums and generally substantial advances including 55 points for General Motors, and 30 for Bethlehem Steel.

Prices tended upwards again at the opening of today's market, but the wide and general gains of recent sessions were lacking and the undertone indicated a degree of irregularity. Shipping shares were active but moved unevenly. Atlantic Gulf and West Indies recording a new maximum on its one point advance to 90, with an equal gain for Pacific Mail, while Mariner and United Fruit suggested realizing. American Smelting led the coppers with an additional two point gain and motoring, sugars and some of the equipment were materially higher.

U. S. Steel made only moderate headway and rails were barely steady. Rails shook off their apathy before the end of the first hour and helped to revive interest in the general list. Pacifics, Grangers, Cokers and Trunk lines rose 1 to 2 points. Union Pacific and Reading being especially prominent. Steel also came forward but failed by a liberal margin to repeat yesterday's high record.

Bethlehem Steel extended its gain by almost 14 points, and General Motors, climbed to new heights at 445, with marked strength in Maxwell and Studebaker.

Industrial Alcohol, Pittsburgh Coal and Railway Steel springs featured the other strong specialties with pronounced weakness in the paper group. Bonds were steady.

Favorite stocks developed fresh strength in the last hour, rails, industrials and munitions contributing to the recurrent activity at appreciable gains. The closing was strong.

Major Richard L. Manning has been renominated for governor of South Carolina over former Governor Cole L. Blaise, according to unofficial returns in yesterday's Democratic run-off primary compiled here today. Gov. Manning's vote, including that cast by the National guardsmen on the border, with only 54 small South Carolina precincts missing, was 68,926, with 61,274 for Blaise. Blaise lost Manning by more than 20,000 votes in the first primary, but failed to obtain a majority over five aspirants.

It was estimated the governor would be nominated by at least 2,000. Nicholson's managers refused to concede defeat.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 13.—Returns at noon indicated the renomination of Governor George W. P. Hunt, Democrat, in yesterday's primary by a majority approximating 3,000. Tom Campbell, Republican, was unopposed for the gubernatorial nomination. Henry Ashurst, Democrat, and Joseph H. Kinney, Republican, were nominated for United States senator. Congressman Carl Hayden, Democrat, was renominated.

The Republican nomination is still in doubt.

DENTISTRY THAT PLEASURES

My sole aim is to do work that pleases, at a price within reason. Whether it is a Bridge, Crown, Filling or Set of Teeth you want I can please you.

TODAY, perhaps more than ever before, no person can afford to appear in the business world or in society either, showing every time he opens his mouth, dirty, irregular teeth, and vacant smiles that look worse still. Improve your appearance—pay regular visits every 6 months or so to a competent, careful dentist.

Come in and I'll examine your teeth and tell you exactly what it will cost to have the necessary work properly done. Don't you think that is the common sense way?

VILLA'S ESCAPE WILL BE DIFFICULT SAYS MEXICAN GENERAL

Chihuahua, Mex., Sept. 13.—With the troops of General Huerta Vargas posted along the line of the Mexican Central Railway ready to head off any attempt of the Villa troops to escape in that direction, General Carranza, pushing northeast with his command from Nampiqua and the American expeditionary force forming the third section of the circle, General Trevino stated here that Villa is now in a position from which it will be difficult to escape. The American expedition has forces at San Buena Ventura and Carmen on the lookout for the bandits. San Buena Ventura is on the main wagon road to the Central railway and gives the Americans the control of the only easy exit for Villa from his present position into the circle, General Trevino stated.

THE CONNECTICUT PROGRESSIVES TO SUPPORT WILSON

New York, Sept. 13.—William H. Avis, member of the Progressive State Central committee of Connecticut has issued a public statement setting forth the reasons why he and fellow Progressives of that state will support President Wilson. Mr. Avis says in part:
"All thinking Progressives should read the acceptance speech of President Wilson and compare it with the acceptance speech of Charles E. Hughes. To those Progressives who think for themselves and who cannot be kicked back into the reactionary Republican party even by Colonel Roosevelt, it is plainly obvious that Mr. Hughes is a dodger of the first water and no Progressive who stands true to the principles of the Progressive party will ever stand up and have his vote counted for a dodger. Mr. Hughes is being guided and controlled by the very elements which the Progressive party repudiated in 1912."

WOMEN CROSS CONTINENT ON THEIR MOTORCYCLES

San Diego, Calif., Sept. 13.—After a motorcycle trip of more than 4,000 miles, Misses Adeline and Augusta Van Buren arrived here yesterday from New York from where they started July 5. They will make the return trip by train. The two motorcyclists traveled via Buffalo, Chicago, Omaha and Denver, to Colorado Springs, where they climbed Pike's Peak on their machines, a feat never before accomplished by women, it is said. Their route carried them on to Glenwood Springs and Salt Lake City and across the Great American Desert. They were on the desert eleven days.

Not Confiscatory Say Mexican Commissioners

New London, Conn., Sept. 13.—The Mexican members of the joint international commission assured their American conferees today that the recent decrees by General Carranza fixing the tax on mining properties in Mexico were not intended to be confiscatory in any sense.

The real purpose of the Carranza government was two-fold, they said, being both to raise internal revenue and foster development of Mexican industries on a reasonable scale, and also to make the burden of taxation fall heavier upon the larger operators.

Third Term Testifies

Columbus, O., Sept. 13.—Harris J. Morgan, third-term at the state prison was the only witness heard today at the investigation of alleged cruelty on the part of Warden Preston E. Thomas toward prisoners under his care. Morgan is the writer of letters which appeared in a Lima, Ohio, newspaper and which resulted in the hearing.

In a few cases Morgan testified he had been an eye-witness to cases of extreme punishment of prisoners but in most cases he admitted that his statements were based on hearsay.

DON'T RISK NEGLECT

Don't neglect a constant backache, sharp darting pains or urinary disorders. The danger of dropsy or Bright's disease is too serious to ignore. Use Doan's Kidney Pills as have your friends and neighbors. A Portsmouth case, Joe Miller, 1161 Waller street, Portsmouth, says: "Whenever I take cold, it seems to settle on my kidneys across my loins. At such times, my urinals are too frequently and I have pains in the small of my back. I never let the complaint get a good hold on me, because I use Doan's Kidney Pills, prepared at Miller's drug store right away and they always fix me up in good shape." 50c. at all dealers. Jess Willard Says: "Take Nuxated Iron"

If you want plenty of 'stay there' strength and endurance and health and muscles like mine."

Ordinary Nuxated Iron will often increase strength and endurance of the delicate nervous folks 200 per cent in two weeks' time.

SPECIAL NOTE—Dr. E. Sauer, a well known physician, who has studied widely in both this country and Europe, has been specially employed to make a thorough investigation into the real secret of the great strength, power and endurance of Jess Willard and the marvelous bulge of muscle from a strength builder. NEW YORK—Upon being interviewed at his apartment in the Columbia Hotel, Mr. Willard said: "Yes, I have a chemist with me to study the value of different foods and products as to their power to produce great strength and endurance, both of which are so necessary in the prize ring. On his recommendation I have often taken Nuxated Iron and I have particularly advocated the free use of iron by all those who wish to obtain great physical and mental power. Without it I am sure that I would never have been able to whip Jack Johnson so completely and easily as I did, and while training for my bout with Frank Moran, I regularly took Nuxated Iron and I am certain that it was a most important factor in my winning so easily." (Continued.) Dr. Sauer said: "Mr. Willard's case is only one of hundreds which I could cite from my own personal experience which proves conclusively the astonishing power of Nuxated Iron to restore strength and vitality even in most complicated chronic conditions."

Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man. In fact a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret he said was taking iron—Nuxated Iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30 he was in bad health; at 40 he was nearly all in. Now at 50 a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth. As I have said a hundred times over, iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only throw away their medicine and take Nuxated Iron, they would save a hundred times the cost. As I am convinced that the lives of thousands of persons might be saved, who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, consumption, kidney liver and heart trouble, etc. The real food value of which states their diseases was nothing more or less than a weakened condition brought on by lack

I consider that plenty of iron in my blood is the secret of my great strength, power and endurance.

Jess Willard

of iron in the blood. Iron is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to carry food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much or what you eat, food merely passes through you without doing you any good. You don't get the strength out of it and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient of iron. If you are a strong or well you owe it to yourself to take Nuxated Iron. Next time you feel tired, give a grain of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself the difference. I have seen dozens of men and women who, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles by taking iron in the proper form. And after they had in some cases been doing for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old fashioned reduced iron from acetate or through iron from the country. It is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 16 who lacks iron and increase their strength 20 per cent or over in four weeks time. They also offer to refund your money if it does not least double your strength and endurance in ten days time. It is dispensed by Fiesher and Streich's Pharmacy and all good druggists.

URGES THE ESTABLISHMENT OF COST SYSTEMS BY MANUFACTURERS

Columbus, O., Sept. 13.—Establishment of cost systems by manufacturers was recommended as one of the most important means of strengthening American industry to meet European competition after the war by Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, in an address before the Ohio Bankers' Association here today.

"The man who does not know his true costs is just the man who prices his goods foolishly, and thereby impairs the business of his sound competitors at the same time he ruins his own," said Mr. Hurley. He also urged that strenuous efforts to increase American foreign trade participation in the establishment of branches of American banks abroad, be made to meet the more efficient and larger scale production of European countries when peace comes. Nine-tenths of the concerns reporting to the Federal Trade Commission do not keep adequate cost systems, Mr. Hurley declared. "Since they can not tell where they are making money and where they are losing it, they cannot tell where to introduce economies," he added. "Out of the sixty thousand corporations that report an annual income of $50,000 or more half do not charge off a single penny for depreciation. They even go on paying taxes to the government on inflated values and inflated earnings."

Comparing British and American banking systems, Mr. Hurley said: "The total capital and reserves of the 57 British Overseas banks exceed $500,000,000. Although our domestic banks, loan and trust companies have a capital and surplus of $3,400,000,000, which equals that of all the domestic banks of all the rest of the world, combined, the capital and surplus represented by our Overseas banking is less than $7,000,000. We are permitting our commercial rivals to do our foreign banking for us and to obtain the profits and commercial advantages that naturally result."

WAR

Tentative allies, the Serbian troops on the Macedonian front have made important progress at various points, it is announced by the war office. Violent fighting is in progress in the vicinity of Lake Ostrovo, where the Serbians have gained considerable ground.

DECREASE IN EPIDEMIC

New York, Sept. 13.—There was a decided decrease in the epidemic of infantile paralysis during the twenty-four hours ending at 10 a. m. today. There were only 9 deaths, one-half of yesterday's toll and 31 new cases, seven fewer than yesterday.

The Busy West End

Market street and lower Third street presented scenes Wednesday resembling those of a county fair. Both thoroughfares were congested with farm wagons and country vehicles of all descriptions and curb dinners and lunches were the order of the day.

Putting Up New Signs

The Grimes-Peebles company, of Front and Jefferson streets, has a force of men at work in front putting up some attractive signs constructed by the firm.

Resumes Studies
 Miss Mildred Goodman, of Fourth street, has gone to Columbus to resume her studies at the St. Mary's of the Springs Academy.

Will Have Fine Booth

John W. Carroll, contracting painter and paperhanger of Second street, boasts that the booth he is constructing for the Korn Carnival, will be hard to beat. John's efforts along that line in the past have always been very artistic.

Back To Work.
 Frank Steppe has resumed his duties as meat cutter at P. J. Frederick's meat market on Second street after a week's illness.

REMEDY FOR NEURASTHENIA

Neurasthenia is a condition of exhaustion of the nervous system. The causes are varied. Continuous work, mental or physical, without proper vacation periods, without proper attention to diet and exercise, also worry over the struggle for success, are the most common causes. Excess of almost any kind may produce it. Some diseases, like the grip, will cause neurasthenia. So also will a severe shock, intense anxiety or grief. The symptoms are oversensitiveness, irritability, a disposition to worry over trifles, insomnia, possibly nausea. The treatment is one of nutrition of the nerve cells, requiring a non-alcoholic tonic. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed towards building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anemia, or bloodlessness, shown by most neurasthenic patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills. Two useful books "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Visited Paint Street
 Louis C. Grashel, chief clerk of the local B. & O. office was a business visitor in Chillicothe Tuesday.

Has Recovered.
 Harry Samuel, the 17-months-old son of Sam Radcliff, of No. 329 Fourth street, who was badly scalded a few weeks ago, has fully recovered from his burns.

Shaw Improving.
 Winchester Shaw, of Carey's Run, who had a leg fractured in a fall from a wagon one day last week, is reported getting along nicely.

Returns Home
 Mrs. C. W. Wilson, wife of the B. & O. round house foreman, has returned from a week's visit among relatives at Washington, C. H.

Was a Visitor
 Brother John, lifelong companion and house man for Rev. Father Joseph Merigan, aged retired priest of McCullough, was a visitor in Portsmouth Tuesday, having recovered from his recent dangerous illness.

Lights Are On Way

The West End Improvement association light committee has received notice that the 30 electric lights stalled on Second street before the Korn Carnival begins.

Another Free Act

St. Straus, chairman of the attraction committee for the Great 1916 Korn Carnival has secured another free act. It is known as the Aeroplane Hoop act. Two members of the troupe do some startling stunts on revolving hoops that are electrically lighted.

Grand Army Day

A number of G. A. R. veterans of this city went to Ironton Wednesday to attend the Grand Army Day celebration held there in connection with the Apple Show. Civil War veterans from all parts of Southern Ohio flocked to Ironton Wednesday to attend the camp fire and bean dinner arranged for them.

Moose Will Be There

At the weekly meeting of the Moose lodge Tuesday evening arrangements were made to have a booth in the Korn Carnival and members of the order will march in the fraternal parade.

Soldier Boy Comes Back From Front

Fresh from a three months' border service at Brownsville, Tex., Paul Thompson of this city, who was a member of Second Regiment of Virginia, arrived here Tuesday on a visit to relatives and friends. He enlisted while working at Roanoke and was forced to return here the result of injuries he suffered ten days ago when a tent blew down on him during a big storm. Thompson says he is glad to get back as the weather was terrifically warm at Brownsville. He says there are still many soldiers there with orders to remain indefinitely.

Repairing Machine

John Capehart's Shidebaker '6' and the W. H. Barbee and John Kah automobiles are among the machines at Thomas W. Fickling's garage, corner Front and Jefferson streets for repairs.

Visited City.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Heller, of Buena Vista, were visitors in the city Tuesday.

KEEPING ABREAST WITH SPORTING TREND

Dillhoefer May Go Up

According to a tip Ches Spencer received in Springfield several days ago, Catcher William Dillhoefer of the Braves will be drafted this fall by one of the big league teams. Dillhoefer has developed into the "catching sensation" in the A. A. He is batting at a .270 clip and is throwing and running bases brilliantly.

WILL PUBLISH TRAINING CAMP STORIES

The football player will soon come into his own again. Lovers of gridiron battles will be anxious to get some "inside dope" on the big college teams. Well, The Times is going to give it to you. For the next ten days it will carry a story right from the training camps of the big colleges. Watch for them on The Times' sport page. They will be interesting.

TO REPRESENT U. S. AT STOCKHOLM

New York, Sept. 13.—Officials of the Amateur Athletic Union consider the team of four men selected to represent the United States in the track and field games at Stockholm, Copenhagen and Christiania in October among the best all-around athletes in America. The team will be composed of Robert Simpson, of the University of Missouri; Fred Murray, of San Francisco; Ted Meredith and J. G. Loomis. Both Simpson and Murray, the two late additions to the team, are holders of world's records. The athletes will leave for Europe September 28 and expect to return Nov. 15.

Smiling Whitted Hopes To Get In World's Series

GEORGE WHITTED

He smiles! And not without reason, for he is Mr. George Whitted, who plays in the outfield for the Phillies, and every fan knows that the Phillies are very much in the race for the National League pennant.

George is now batting somewhere near .280 and is fielding in a remarkable manner. He broke into the game six years ago with a semi-pro team at Wadesboro, Me. In 1912 he came to the majors, joining the St. Louis Nationals. He remained with them the following year and spent 1914 with them and the Boston Braves. Last year he was shifted to the Phillies and took part in the world's series between the boys under Pat Moran and the Boston Red Sox.

QUALIFYING ROUNDS

Members of the Portsmouth Golf Club are playing the qualifying rounds of the tournament, which will be held in October for the director's cup.

Iowa's Prospect Fair

Iowa City, Sept. 13.—Iowa's football prospects are fair, according to critics who have scanned the muster of men expected to answer the call of Coach Howard Jones former head coach at Iowa. A heavy line is proposed and it will be needed as the backs probably will be light. The team has no stars, the list of veterans returns does not include such heroes as Barron and Gross, and only two of the squad have seen more than one year of service. The vets expected are:

Clinton Beebe, guard; Elwood Davis, end and dropkick; E. C. Duncan, half; Frank Grubb, guard; Robt. Fostick, tackle; Stanley Holmes, center; Grover Jacobson, tackle; Captain Chas. Laun, half and punter; Howard McKee, end; H. W. Scott, fullback; Orle Triplett, end, and Kenneth Von-Lackum, end and punter.

Team Won Two

On Sunday the fast McClintic Marshall Co. team played a double header at the Bridge grounds, the first game being against the fast traveling Fullerton club, of Fullerton, Ky. This game was entirely one sided and only lasted seven innings by agreement, the final score being McClintic Marshall Co. 14, Fullerton 3.

The second and last game was with the seldom defeated Greenup Club, from Greenup, Ky. Their record this season is 29 victories with only two defeats. One of the defeats being at the hands of the bridge builders team, by a score of 4 to 3. The score:

Has Job In Steel Plant

G. F. McKinney, resident engineer of the Ironport-Portsmouth traction line, has resigned his position with this company to accept one in the engineering department of the Whitaker-Glessner company. Mr. McKinney has been engineer of the most difficult place of work on the whole line for over a year, and it is only through his untiring personal supervision that the work is so far advanced. He has made many friends here who wish him success in his new position.—Ironport News.

Jackson Is Having Boom

Jackson, Sept. 13.—There is an acute shortage of labor at the shops and mines in Jackson. Every available man is being employed at the Detroit, Toledo and Southern car shops. At present the shops are working overtime and on Sundays and holidays. Many of the coal mines are running behind on their orders owing to a scarcity of miners.

ENJOYING VISIT WITH OLD FRIENDS

James Wagner, a Civil war veteran, formerly of this city, is in Portsmouth visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Wagner left Portsmouth thirty years ago for Trenton, later moving to Huntington, W. Va., where he still makes his home. Among others he called on Officer Joe Stokley, Tuesday. He and the latter's two late brothers, William and John Stokley, soldiered in the same regiment, the 14th O. V. I., during the Rebellion.

BAKER EXPLAINS INCREASE IN THE PRICE OF BREAD

One of Portsmouth's leading wholesale bakers, Jacob Pfau, Eleventh street, stated Tuesday that he could see no possible reason for the public to become excited over the raise in the price of bread, and cakes. Mr. Pfau said that flour was costing the bakers $4.00 more than formerly and that the increase cost of bread would bring in only $2.50 per barrel, leaving them to hold the sack for $1.50. "Not only has flour raised to an abnormal price," said Mr. Pfau, "but lard, butter and sugar, to say nothing of eggs and other ingredients that enter into the baking business, have gone out of sight. We are not attempting to control prices—simply reserving the right to make a living. We have been losing money for quite a while, and surely no one can honestly find fault with us in our efforts to make an honest livelihood."

Continuing Mr. Pfau said: "Food prices have been raised continuously for some time and no great hullabaloo has been created. Butchers are asking more for their meat and lard—they have to, because they are paying a great advance on the hoof. Shoes have been raised in price, clothing is high—and why the bakers should be censured for raising their prices is beyond my reasoning power. For the past 18 months we have been serving the good people with their bread and cakes at a loss. If we are to continue in business we must have a little more for our products. I believe every man, woman and child in the city know me. I believe they at least think I am an honest citizen. Many have been helped by me—a fact of which I am proud. Those who know me at least, I am sure, know that my part in raising the price of my products was done only after I had given the question serious consideration and that I acted simply in defense of my business and family. I would like to be able to give bread away, but unfortunately I am not so situated as to do that. I have to work hard—surely I am entitled to a living. For the past two years I have longed for an automobile, but I am still longing. People who know Jake know that if I was able to buy one I would have had it long ago. All we bakers want is a living—an honest one."

N. & W. AFTER NEW CINCY ENTRANCE

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 13.—There is a report in Cincinnati railroad circles that the Norfolk and Western railway is seeking to abandon its tracks rights into Cincinnati over the Cincinnati, Lebanon and Northern and secure an entrance of its own to the Queen City from Clare, Ohio, nine miles from Cincinnati.

REV. ALFRED HUGHES NEW COLLEGE HEAD

Columbus, Sept. 13.—At a meeting held in Cincinnati, trustees of Moore's Hill college, Moore's Hill, Ind., elected Rev. Alfred F. Hughes, pastor of the Third Avenue Methodist church, to the presidency of the institution, according to advices received in Columbus Tuesday.

Widow Of Flood Refugee Here Looking For Sister

Mrs. Effie Hatfield, a young widow and Cabin Creek, W. Va., flood refugee, called at police headquarters early Wednesday morning with her little baby and asked aid in locating a sister, Mrs. Virgie Murphy. She said her sister and husband, Ed Murphy, came to Portsmouth two weeks ago with a family named Burns for the purpose of seeking employment, having lost all of their belongings in the recent big cloud-burst at Cabin Creek. She, herself, arrived here on an N. & W. train Tuesday evening and said some family near the depot provided her and child with lodging.

AUTO HIT ENGINE

An automobile driven by Charles Dixon, of Rhodes avenue, New Boston, collided with the bulky engine operated by the Peaches Brick company on Rhodes avenue, in East Portsmouth, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Dixon was not hurt, but one light of his machine was smashed and the radiator was damaged.

Red Cross Degree

An elaborate musical program will be given in connection with the conferring of the Red Cross degree upon a class of seven candidates by Calvary Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 13 Friday evening, September 15. Mrs. Samuel Rice will act as organist and Mrs. Norma Hark-Young, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowry and Adair Barkel will sing several selections.

Real Activity At Otway

The little village of Otway, which was swept by a disastrous conflagration last spring, is being rapidly rebuilt, according to J. M. Blackburn, merchant, who was in the city Tuesday on business. Mr. Blackburn says that two homes have already been completed and four others are in the course of completion. All of the new buildings are substantial. The new homes completed are:

Ironton, Keep Eye On Kohorts; To Visit Apple Show Thursday

A call to arms has been issued for the Korn Carnival Kohorts. The mobilization point selected by Capt. Henry Winter is the Norfolk and Western depot at 6:15 Thursday evening. A general advance will begin upon the Ironton Apple Show at that hour and the fortress of Fun and Frolic is expected to be reached by seven o'clock. The heavy artillery and the River City band will precede the infantry and will sweep the streets of the Booth.

As Special Policeman

Robert Lanter, of No. 1530 Ninth street, was sworn in by Mayor H. H. Kaps Wednesday morning as a special policeman on account of circus day.

Kentucky Carlsbad Springs Destroys Disease

Why plod along with the army of sufferers when you can find relief by drinking Kentucky Carlsbad Water and join the army of well and happy who have been restored to health by drinking Nature's True Remedy, Kentucky Carlsbad Springs Water.

We do not make any rash claims for Kentucky Carlsbad Springs Water. There are diseases which it cannot help. There are people in advanced stages of other diseases whom it may help but cannot cure.

We know, however, that hundreds of people afflicted with Bright's Disease, Kidney, Liver, Bladder and Stomach Trouble, Catarrh of the Head and Bowels, and Intestinal Troubles, who have drunk the Water in their own homes, now claim that the cause of their trouble has been removed and their health restored.

All we ask is that, in fairness to yourself as well as to us, you take it according to the directions. Then, whatever you say will be final.

The Kentucky Carlsbad Springs company own and conduct the Carlsbad Hotel and Sanatorium at Dry Ridge, Ky. For rheumatism, to be entirely relieved, it is necessary to bathe in the Water at the Springs, as well as to drink it.

Water on sale by all leading druggists. Distributed by P. J. Davis Drug Co.

EVANGELICAL BROTHERHOOD MEETS

The German Evangelical Brotherhood held a rousing meeting Tuesday evening with a large number in attendance. Will Hazlebeck was elected delegate to the National Federation of Evangelical Brotherhoods' meeting to be held in St. Louis October 8 and 9. The entertainment committee is making arrangements for different entertainments that will feature the winter meetings of the order. The drinking fountain, recently ordered by the brotherhood, has been installed.

THIS WAS GOOD NEWS FOR THE KIDDIES

St. Mary's parochial school was dismissed at noon to give the pupils an opportunity of attending Robinson's circus.

Si Straus To Assist

Arrangements for the Children's parade, one of the big events of the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival, will be made Wednesday at a special meeting of the teachers of the public schools, which will be held at the High School building.

Escape From Work Gang

John O'Connor, Sam Bradshaw and M. C. McComas escaped from the city prison work gang within a few minutes after they were taken out for work by Assistant Service Director Pete Yeager Tuesday.

O'Connor was arrested in Earlstown Tuesday night after he had used indecent language in the presence of women and chased and scared some children. He also tried to fight Sergeant Jack Leeds after arriving at headquarters. He is the same man who tried to knock a Mallet engine and freight train off the N. & W. tracks with his fist a few days ago after narrowly escaping being run down and killed. He claims Ironton as his home. What is puzzling the police is how and where O'Connor got $3.70 since his escape.

Bicycle Is Stolen

A bicycle belonging to Jackson Cropper, real estate man, was stolen from the rear porch of his home, No. 1294 Eleventh street, Tuesday evening. The police were notified.

Adams Being Guarded

COUNCILMEN ARRESTED

Ironton, Sept. 13.—There was quite a little stir around police headquarters Tuesday evening, caused by the arrest of Councilmen W. D. Kelly and Hugh McElalley, the former being charged with intoxication and the latter on a charge of intoxication and interfering with an officer.

Condition Serious

Hooper Martin, the huckster wagon driver, who was stabbed near the heart by Ernest Seaff, a teamster, when he found him in his home with Mrs. Seaff Monday night, continues in a precarious condition at Hempstead hospital. Martin was restless throughout Tuesday night and his condition was reported unchanged Wednesday morning.

Special Train To Ironton Will Have Two Sections

The special train to Ironton Thursday evening will be run in two sections, according to an announcement made Wednesday by R. E. Scott, passenger agent, Norfolk and Western railroad.

There will be sufficient room for everyone desiring to make the trip. The trains will leave the local depot at 6:15 o'clock and leave Ironton at 10:30.

Those expecting to make the trip are asked to get their tickets at the city ticket office, Sixth and Chillicothe streets, today or tomorrow. By doing this, Mr. Scott says the usual jam at the depot just before the time for departure will be eliminated.

GARDEN PARTY

Thursday, September 14th, from 2:30 o'clock to 5 o'clock, a garden party will be held at the home of Mrs. George Appel. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Home for Aged Women. A large crowd is looked for and a neat sum is expected to be cleared for the Home.

Will Inspect Bridge

John J. Harper, county engineer, went to Wheelersburg Wednesday morning to inspect the concrete bridge which Contractor H. E. Addis is constructing for the county. Complaints have been received from the Wheelersburg citizens that the work is being unnecessarily delayed. Mr. Harper said that he would investigate and see what was delaying the work. The bridge is located between the village and the Norfolk and Western depot.

Brass Thieves Busy

Brass thieves broke into the Portsmouth Carpet Cleaning Company's plant at No. 1219 Chillicothe street, Monday night and stripped a portable cleaning machine engine of its oil cups, spark plugs, switch, etc.

The machine is the one the company carries on the street in going from house to house cleaning carpets. Entrance to the plant was gained by tearing off several boards on the rear side of the building. So far as known nothing else was taken although the company has not made any careful inventory. The police were notified.

GREEK CABINET RESIGNS

Car Company Head Refuses To Arbitrate Strike

FRENCH CAPTURE VILLAGE

CABINET'S ACTION MAY PAVE WAY FOR GREECE'S ENTRANCE IN THE WAR

Athens, Sept. 12. (Via London, Sept. 13; delayed)—King Constantine has accepted the resignation of Premier Zaimis and his cabinet.

The belief is entertained in the entente capitals that the retirement of the Zaimis ministry is preliminary to the entrance of Greece in the war with the allies. Recent despatches from Berlin and Vienna show that there, also, it is regarded as probable Greece will abandon neutrality and join the entente powers. The precise causes which led to the resignation of the ministry have not been disclosed on account of the exceptionally rigid censorship. It is believed in London M. Zaimis' resignation was due to the fact that he accepted the premiership on the understanding that he was to maintain neutrality and in view of the Bulgarian occupation of Greek territory had found this impossible.

Up to the time of the first dispatch announcing that M. Zaimis had presented his resignation, his retirement was unexpected, for it was understood the premier had assumed dictatorial powers and was in an exceptionally strong position.

After the fall of the Venizelos' cabinet last October on account of the king's disagreement with its policy favoring intervention in the war with the allies, M. Zaimis was called on to form a cabinet. He announced a policy of armed neutrality. The cabinet resigned in November, but in June, M. Zaimis was again placed at the head of the government. Although advocating neutrality, he was regarded as having a predisposition toward the entente.

MAYOR'S PLAN TO SETTLE CONTROVERSY REJECTED BY SHONTS

New York, Sept. 13.—Refusal by President Shonts of the Interborough Rapid Transit company to consent to a proposal by Mayor Mitchell and the Public Service Commission to arbitrate the controversy between the company and its employees left today little hope of settling the street railway strike by that method.

Mr. Shonts promised to make a formal reply to the mayor and the Public Service Commission later but issued a statement flatly refusing to "let outsiders come between us and our employees."

William B. Fitzgerald, one of the strike leaders, promised that he and his assistants would attend a conference with the mayor today when his reply to the arbitration proposal would be given. The mayor's plan was to appoint arbitrators to decide whether the contracts between the Interborough company and its employees were a violation of the peace agreement resulting from a previous strike and whether the company had used fraud, misrepresentation or coercion in making these contracts.

The New York Railways company, representing the majority of the surface cars in Manhattan, hoped today to increase the number of cars in operation over yesterday when 278 of its cars were in service.

Although transportation within the city is far from paralyzed thousands are compelled to resort to the use of automobiles, moving vans, truck and other vehicles. Policemen beg rides from motorists and are often seen on the running boards of private cars. Many automobiles have been pressed into public service, and jokers at the street corners rouse the ire of drivers of handsome limousines and touring cars by calls of "Jitney! Jitney!"

GAIN IN DRIVE ON COMBLES

(BULLETIN)

Paris, Sept. 13.—The French captured the village of Bouchavesnes, on the Somme front.

The official announcement of today says the village, which is in the region of Combles, was taken from the Germans last evening.

The French also took by assault a wood 800 yards east of the road from Peronne to Bethune. On the Verdun front the French made progress in the northern part of Vaux-Chapitre wood.

Paris, Sept. 13.—The French infantry started a vigorous offensive yesterday, along a front of six kilometers north of the Somme, from the Combles region to the river, and in half an hour took an entire first line of German trenches, says the official communication issued last night. Another portion of the French forces carried a system of trenches along the road from Bethune to Peronne. Prisoners to the number of 1,500 had been taken when the report was filed. Elsewhere on the front there was only artillery activity.

SERBS MAKE BIG GAINS

Paris, Sept. 13.—Notwithstanding the stout resistance of the Teutonic allies, the Serbian troops on the Macedonian front have made important progress at various points, it is announced by the war office. Violent fighting is in progress in the vicinity of Lake Ostrovo, where the Serbians have gained considerable ground.

SENATOR PAGE RENOMINATED IN VERMONT

Burlington, Vt., Sept. 13.—Returns from the first direct primary held yesterday in Vermont, showed today that Carroll S. Fletcher, with all but 58 of the 284 election precincts heard from the vote was: Page, 23,180; Fletcher, 8,030; fifty percent greater than the aggregate vote of his two opponents, Governor Charles W. Gates and former Governor Allen M. Fletcher.

GOVERNOR MANNING LEADS BLEASE IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 13.—Governor Richard L. Manning has been renominated for governor of South Carolina over former Governor Cole L. Blease, according to unofficial returns in yesterday's Democratic run off primary compiled here today. Gov. Manning's vote, including that cast by the National guardsmen on the border, with only 84 small South Carolina precincts missing, was 68,926, with 64,374 for Blease. Blease led Manning by more than 20,000 votes in the first primary, but failed to obtain a majority over five aspirants.

VILLA'S ESCAPE WILL BE DIFFICULT SAYS MEXICAN GENERAL

Cihuahua, Mex., Sept. 13.—With the troops of General Huerta Varas posted along the line of the Mexican Central Railway ready to test off any attempt of the Villa troops to escape in that direction. General Lavazos, pushing northeast with his command from Nantiquipul, the American expeditionary force during the third section of the circle. General Trevino stated that Villa is now in a position from which it will be difficult to escape. The American expedition has been at San Buena Ventura and taken on the lookout for the bandits. San Buena Ventura is on the main wagon road to the Central railway and gives the Americans the control of the only easy exit for Villa from his present position into northern Chihuahua.

SPIRITED PRIMARY IN ILLINOIS TODAY

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Their campaign for nomination completed, Republican and Democratic candidates at the Illinois state primary today waited for the count of ballots, which will mean success or defeat for them.

While there has been a spirited contest over virtually every state office nomination, the struggle for the Republican gubernatorial nomination overshadowed the others. This was a three-cornered battle between Frank O. Lowden, backed by the regular Republican organization; State Senator Morton D. Hull, championed by the faction led by former Governor Charles S. Deneen and Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, who worked independently of any state or factional backing. Gov. Dunne, opposed for the Democratic nomination for state executive by William B. Brinton, asserted that he had no fear of defeat through the eleven

THE CONNECTICUT PROGRESSIVES TO SUPPORT WILSON

New York, Sept. 13.—William J. Avis, member of the Progressive State Central committee of Connecticut has issued a public statement setting forth the reasons why he and fellow Progressives of that state will support President Wilson. Mr. Avis says in part:

"All thinking Progressives should read the acceptance speech of President Wilson and compare it with the acceptance speech of Charles E. Hughes. To those Progressives who think for themselves and who cannot be kicked back into the reactionary Republican party even by Colonel Roosevelt, it is plainly obvious that Mr. Hughes is a dodger of the first water and no Progressive who stands true to the principles of the Progressive party will ever stand up and have his vote counted for a dodger. Mr. Hughes is being guided and controlled by the very elements which the Progressive party repudiated in 1912."

"Pulled the Rule Book on Him. 'How did you get along in your golf match?'"

"Lost it." "The other fellow outplayed you, eh?" "No. I hit the ball as hard as he did but he knew the rules better than I did and claimed six holes on technicalities."—Detroit Free Press.

Dillhoefer May Go Up

According to a tip Ches Spencer received in Springfield several days ago, Catcher William Dillhoefer of the Braves will be drafted this fall by one of the big league teams. Dilly has developed into the "catching sensation" in the A. A. He is batting at a .270 clip and is throwing and turning bases brilliantly.

TO REPRESENT U. S. AT STOCKHOLM

New York, Sept. 13.—Officials of the Amateur Athletic Union consider the team of four men selected to represent the United States in the track and field games at Stockholm, Copenhagen and the Christians in October among the best all-around athletes in America. The team will be composed of Robert Simpson, of the University of Missouri; Fred Murray, of San Francisco; Ted Meridith and J. O. Loomis. Both Simpson and Murray, the two late additions to the team, are holders of world records. The athletes will leave for Europe September 28 and expect to return Nov. 15.

Smiling Whitted Hopes To Get In World's Series

GEORGE WHITTED.

He smiles! And not without reason, for he is Mr. George Whitted, who plays in the outfield for the Phillies, and every fan knows that the Phillies are very much in the race for the National League pennant.

George is now batting somewhere near .280 and is fielding in a remarkable manner. He broke into the game six years ago with a semi-pro team at Wadesboro, Me. In 1912 he came to the majors, joining the St. Louis Cardinals. He remained with them the following year and spent 1914 with them and the Boston Braves. Last year he was shifted to the Phillies and took part in the world's series between the boys under Pat Moran and the Boston Red Sox.

Iowa's Prospect Fair

Iowa City, Sept. 13.—Iowa's football prospects are fair, according to critics who have scanned the muster of men expected to answer the call of Coach Howard Jones former head coach at Yale. A heavy line is promised and it will be needed as the backs probably will be light. The team has no stars, the list of veterans returns does not include such heroes as Harlan and Gross, and only two of the squad have seen more than one year of service. The ones expected are:

Clinton Hewlitsky, guard; Elwood Davis, end and dropkicker; E. C. Duncan, half; Frank Grubb, guard; Bobb Foshick, tackle; Stanley Holmes, center; Grover Jacobson, tackle; Captain Lhas Lano, half and punter; Howard McKee, end; H. W. Scott, fullback; Orie Triplet, end; and Kenneth Von Luckum, end and punter.

Team Won Two

On Sunday the fast McClintic Marshall Co. team played a double header at the Bridge grounds, the first game being against the fast traveling Fullerton club, of Fullerton, Ky. This game was entirely one sided and only lasted seven innings by agreement. The final score being McClintic Marshall Co. 14, Fullerton 2.

The second and last game was with the seldom defeated Greenup Club, from the 22 victories with only two defeats. One of the defeats being at the hands of the bridge builders team, by a score of 4 to 3. The score:

ENJOYING VISIT WITH OLD FRIENDS

James Wagner, a Civil war veteran, formerly of this city, is in Portsmouth visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Wagner left Portsmouth thirty years ago for Ironton, later moving to Huntington, W. Va., where he still makes his home. Among others he called on Officer Joe Stokley, Tuesday. He and the latter's two late brothers, William and John Stokley, soldiered in the same regiment, the 140th O. V. I., during the Rebellion.

Tuneful Sheep Bells

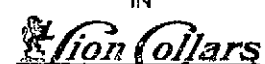

Some wonderful sheep bells used to be made by a blacksmith at Pyscombe, a little village on the top of the Soesax down looking over Brighton from the London road. To give a special tone to these bells the blacksmith beat a quantity of brass into the metal of which they were made, not smelting the two together, but simply beating them, so that the brass lies in big flakes in the iron; and this gives a clear, rather metallic tone to the bell. A set of sheep bells numbered about twenty-one and ranged in tone from the big tenor bell, measuring five to six inches across, to quite small, highly pitched treble ones.—Country Life.

WOMAN AND SIX SMALL CHILDREN UNABLE TO REACH DESTINATION

Mrs. Henry Saddler and six young children, of Columbus, enamped out in the immediate vicinity of police headquarters Tuesday afternoon, hoping for some arrangement whereby they could reach Dry Run.

The woman and her brood of youngsters had come to Portsmouth, Sunday, and had since been staying at the home of a sister on Walker street. She said she had relatives in Dry Run and planned for a house there. Her husband, who is working for a contractor in Columbus, had given her just a little over enough to pay railroad fare to Portsmouth. The sister, too, said she could not afford the price of hiring a "jitney," which to take them to Dry Run would be a dollar.

Officials were at a loss what to do for the family, but Joe Stokley finally relieved them of all of their luggage, taking it into the police station for safekeeping over night, and they went back to the home of the sister, expecting to return in the morning and try their luck again towards reaching their destination.

Still Out.

"Are you sure your mistress is out?" asked the caller.
"Oh, yes, sir," replied the maid. "She told me two hours ago she was out, and she hasn't come in since."—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

PLAYER or FAN!!

Get in the game

The closing series of many Leagues will soon be in interest—and the keenest interest of any part of the season is in evidence at this stage of the game. The teams are watched closely just at this time, and every player wants to do his best and every "fan" feel his finest. The players that are the most vigorous will be the winners, and the fans that are the most enthusiastic will be the most enjoyment out of the game. If your health is not up to standard, your lack of cheer is most likely the result of an impure condition of the blood—perhaps from the change in season or climate, or you may without fully realizing it, have Catarrh, or Malaria, or some form of Rheumatism in your system, that you can check easier now than you can later. In either event your blood needs the assistance of S.S.S. to help throw off the poisons and give it the vital qualities that only S.S.S. can give. Buy S.S.S. at any drug store—today—and get in the winners' class.

AT THE FRONT OF THEIR KIND

Two representatives of the state are in Portsmouth, this week, examining the several building associations and are about ready to make their reports. Officially, because the law is conservative and discreet and offers no specific comparisons, because it would avoid any appearance of being invidious, they will say the institutions are exceedingly well managed and so far as outward evidence goes, altogether sound and profitable. Privately they proclaim them the best conducted in the state, the directors giving them far closer attention than is usual, and the accounts being kept with absolute accuracy and effective diligence.

It is a fine compliment and altogether the better because it is so well deserved. There has been little disposition to exploit the associations. They are operated at moderate expense and have been held steadily to the purpose for which the law authorizing their creation primarily intends, placing means at the disposition of individuals so that they may accumulate possessions and own homes. It is mainly because of this steadfastness, because they have taken a fine civic pride in their responsibilities, that Portsmouth has become distinct as a city of home owners. We doubt if there is another place that surpasses her in this respect.

There is another point to their credit that calls for special commendation, which is that they have not solely encouraged savings and thrift on the part of the people, but they have actually and effectively promoted the most vital of all community virtues. Persistently, continuously and aggressively they have set forth their own advantages and made it clear to everyone comparatively easy it is to make some provision against the coming of setback and old age. In this respect their task was not by any means as persuading people the worth of owning their own homes, but they kept everlastingly at it and to them must go a great part of the glory for establishing for Portsmouth the record of the fast growing city in savings that there is to be found anywhere. Let it be said right here that in this one respect is Portsmouth singular in another respect and that is whole heartedly and with equal aggressiveness have her banks joined in the most worthy cause of promoting savings.

HELPING OTHERS HELP YOU

Last year, though they come from only one section of the county, and that a limited one, farmers made a most creditable parade during Korn Carnival week. This year two or three most energetic ones have set out to make their parade feature bigger and better than ever. It is to be hoped they will succeed. They deserve and ought to meet not alone with encouragement, but actual and active co-operation. In helping others one helps himself, and there was never a clearer demonstration of this truism than in this particular matter. One of the main reasons why agriculture is not as highly developed in this country as in Europe is the farmer is too much isolated. He doesn't live even in a class, but altogether to himself. Contact and fellowship will prove of the highest benefit to himself and to those in the same pursuit. The greatest stimulant to knowledge and progress is companionship and emulation, pride and honor in one's pursuit. If the farmers should make a big demonstration during carnival week it will be an inspiration to the whole community, it will be their boast and it will be joy of son and daughter, who will glory in the fine showing made by their dads for the dear old farm's sake. There's always a whole lot of complaint that the children won't stay on the farm, but they will stay fast enough if the farm is made what it ought to be, not a place of endless drudgery and eternal loneliness, but a live, pulsating interest, whose mission is as high and important and full of accomplishment as any other.

Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait has received official information from the attorney general that he has both the means and the power to break up automobile speeding on the country roads. This raises the question of what is Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait now going to do about it. Will he proceed to a vigorous and effective enforcement of the law; or will he be merely content to appoint some under-strapper and hanger-on sleuth, merely that he may get another swipe at the public tent? Have known such things as the latter to occur.

Mr. Marshall is going to be informed today, that the great Democratic party has done him the honor altogether unceremoniously of renominating him for vice president. As an agreeable and gracious Democrat we expect to seem express proper surprise and gratification over the distinction.

As best we can figure it out, City Engineer Sam Harper's explanation of why a sewer was built at city expense on private land, managed by Sam Harper, individual, makes a bad matter worse. Little matters of law requirements don't count at all. As for council it will, doubtless, feel highly complimented to be informed that it has frequently and often resolved to have public work done that was long prior completed.

And Democratic free trade keeps on playing its awful havoc with the iron trade. Steel common sold this week only a little above $104, while just think, under protection administration it brought as much as $8.

THE AUGURIES

MOVIES SWEEPING THE BOARD

The rise of the movies and the decay of the drama is, possibly, nowhere more visibly illuminated than in the case of the Dramatic Mirror. This publication was ever the organ and authority of the stage. Awhile back some of its owners rose to appreciation of the part motion pictures were playing in the public mind and began giving attention thereto. Gradually the movie encroached upon the dramatic features and space of the journal until there was more of the former than the latter. A part of the owners were displeased with this change and dissection arose in the management and accentuated until last week, when there was an open rupture, the exponents of the drama retiring and the champions of the movies assuming full control and ownership. More significant even than these shifts is the fact that the new management is considering the changing of the name of the publication to the Moving Picture and Dramatic Weekly.

This leads to the thought that there is little popular conception to what mammoth proportions the moving picture has grown, both as a business and an amusement feature. Annually five hundred million dollars is expended in producing "plays." Many more millions are invested in play houses. What a wholesome lesson one might learn from this if he would. All the millions invested, the millions required for production and the more millions for operating expenses are made up by nickles and dimes. It is seemingly incredible, but the figures and the ocular demonstration every day to millions of people prove it beyond the peradventure of doubt. Isn't it apparent that if everybody every time they went to a movie would lay aside a nickle or a dime we would soon surpass all the nations of the earth combined in savings, individually we could hold our heads high above them when it came to a matter of money. We are doing something like that now, not because we are saving so much, but because we are making so much and so busy at it we can't find time to spend all we make.

There is said to be much grumping and growling about national Republican headquarters over the "swat-the-fly" campaign Hughes made in his swing across the country and back. Even the Cincinnati Enquirer, whose sympathies are altogether with Hughes, is the first paper to give publicity to the gossip that the national chairman is going.

The Bluefield Telegraph thinks the reported seizing of American schooners by England will cause great indignation in Milwaukee. Why not Cincinnati as well?

Gasoline has gone down another cent and every automobile owner thinks he is making money on his car.

BED TIME TALES

By CLARA INGRAM JUDSON

The Beavers Hear A Noise

BUSHY AND LITTLE BEAVER wanted to stay out by the dam all night. They liked to swim around in the cool water and, better still, they liked to dive down and nibble at the juicy water plants that rocked and swayed along the bottom of the dam. But Father Beaver felt safer to have them near him, so they obediently followed along when Father and Mother Beaver left the dam in search of just the right place to build the home.

"You see, Bushy," explained Father Beaver as Bushy trotted beside him, "you're plenty old enough to have a lesson in house-making. And you'll find it interesting too. You look around here as I do and see if you can find a good place to build."

"But dear me! They didn't any of them have a chance to hunt long, for just at that very minute Father Beaver stumbled on a spot that was exactly right for a home—just exactly right! Think of that!"

"I declare," said he happily, "there's not a thing the matter with this place except that the water is too low. And after we get that dam raised the water will come up here just as it should! Aren't we lucky? And now for work!"

"I don't see," she said, after they were done exclaiming over the advantages of the place where the new home was to be, "why you're in such a hurry to build. You know building is a lot of work. And when you once get started, you don't like to stop for anything!" (You see Mother Beaver knew Father Beaver pretty well, and knew exactly what he was likely to do.) "And anyway, it's a long time till autumn, why hurry about building?"

"Why hurry?" demanded Father Beaver. "Just listen! As though anything, anything was as important as an interesting building! What did you want to do?"

"I wanted to make some new clothes," said Mother Beaver. "Just look at us! We're shabby! I think new clothes are a lot more important than a new house!"

How Father Beaver did laugh at that!

How Father Beaver did laugh at that! He rolled on the ground and he laughed till his poor sides ached. "Cheese! This time of year?" he finally found breath to say. "Just listen! Why, Mother Beaver, don't you start worrying about clothes! I don't care a rap if we don't get new outfits till frost! We're comfortable enough as we are. No sir! We want to get our building done while the weather's sue."

Of course Mother Beaver wanted to do what Father Beaver thought best, so she said, "Very well, if you don't mind old clothes, I don't, so we'll build!" And they set to work.

But hardly had they picked out the first little tree that Father Beaver needed for the dam before a soft, "awish! awish!" in the water made them run for a hiding place. Somebody was coming! Who could it be? Tomorrow—Strange Noises

New York, Sept. 12—Charles Mitchell, of Mitchell House, Havre, Sussex, England, is in town for a few days stopping at the Woodstock. If this means nothing to you it might be said that Grandfather Charles Mitchell, landlord over an estate of 7,000 acres in the South Downs, is here.

But anyway he is the same Charles Mitchell, who fought John L. Sullivan in the original Madison Square Garden back in 1883. But not one of his friends recognized him. He weighs 166 pounds—just 42 pounds more than his fighting weight.

He is now an English farmer with a waist line suited to his build and he has a general round and benevolent look. Nothing seems quite the same to him. The dapper old crowd—such as are left—are now mostly tired grayheads or baldheads and many look, but the sixth was a young

The crowd was noisy, and she, too, entered into the spirit of the place. Finally she stood upon a chair with a glass aloft and shouted:

"I'm a wild prairie flower. Growing wilder every hour. Nobody ever cultivated me. I'm wild."

Horticulture Note:—An Ohio woman found a gold ring on a live tulip, and Frank J. Price, the leading city editor of the Morning Telegraph, says he had a similar experience when he saw a gold ring on a "dead beat."

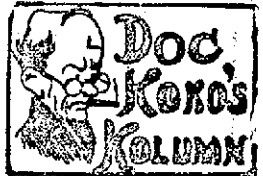

Just when it seemed certain that the occult movement in this nation would lose the last trace of philosophical and scientific teachings as exemplified by the ancients of Egypt there came to New York the other day Hach Maetain El Dorado Can, the son of old man Can, formerly King of Police tribe of Mexico. With tears in his eyes and his hair in braids, the hierophant of the mysteries of Isis frankly intitled on the early Christian fanatics, describing their disorderly conduct regarding ancient culture and hermetic science. They ripped up the teachings of the ancients and tossed them down the prehistoric dust chute.

Fortunately the great great great great great grandchild of Hach Maetain El Dorado Can nailed some of these teachings and hid them in his garage. They descended through the ages as the property of the Can Can family, and after years and years and years New York is to get them verbatim.

In other words, although the occult movement is skidding, the Can family, Bush and Tin, don't blame it on Broadway. Bush, dear reader, the hierophant is speaking: "I am the King of the Toltacs. Tomorrow I could ascend the throne. I fear nothing. Ah! I see the Giants tied Boston today."

Wants To Sell Property

Mary A. Newman, guardian of Floyd Raymond Newman, has filed a petition in probate court asking permission to sell lot 22 Peter Kinney addition, this city. Attorney Mark A. Crawford represents the petitioner.

Tired Women

A verse said to be an epitaph on a tombstone is an English churchyard is as follows:

Here lies a poor woman who always was tired. She lived in a home where the work wasn't hired. Her last words on earth were: "Dear friends, I am going. Where washing ain't done, nor sweeping, nor sewing; But everything there is exact to my wishes. For where they don't eat there's no washing of dishes; I go where loud anthems will always be ringing. But having no voice I'll get clear of the singing. Don't mourn for me now, don't mourn for me never, I'm going to do nothing forever and ever."

He Kept His Job

One of the bosses at Baldwin's locomotive works had to lay off an argumentative Irishman named Pat, so he saved discussion by putting the discharge in writing. The next day Pat was missing, but a week later the boss was passing through the shop and he saw him again at his lathe. (Going up to the Irishman he demanded fiercely:

"Didn't you get my letter?" "Yes, sir, Oi did!" said Pat. "Did you read it?" "Sure, sure, Oi read it inside and Oi read it outside," said Pat, "and on the inside yez said I was fired; and on the outside yez said 'Return to Baldwin Locomotive Works in five days.'—Lippincott's.

Nothing To Worry About

"Marry," said he to his wife when the awful truth dawned upon him, "I have swallowed my collar button." "That's all right," responded wife in a tone of evident satisfaction. "There's nothing to worry about." "Nothing to worry about?" responded father. "Do you?" "That's what I said," interrupted little wifey. "For once in your life you know where you've put it!"—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Don't Shot The Belt Man!

Don't criticize the Belt this week. Candidates swarming, baby still sick, editor scabbing on the carpenter, through necessity. Nor is this all; he buttoned into a baby buggy in the dark and re-cracked his old broken leg. The other end being already cracked puts him in hard shape.—Sam Simon (Ariz.) Belt.

Tasted Bad

Visitor—Of course you tried the jinkishus while you were in Japan, Mrs. New Gilt—Oh, my word, yes; aren't they awful tasting things!

Sounds Good

"How is that soup, uncle?" "Oh, very good, dear." "Does it taste good?" "Why, certainly. Doesn't it sound good?"—Yonkers Statesman.

Patience—Don't you think she can keep a secret? Patrice—Well, she ought to try and hide that point on her face if she can!—Yonkers Statesman.

Getting Value

Wife—He says he will give colder ice for the same money.—Hartford Gazette.

The Wrong End

It was while they were building the Panama canal. An excited Chinese labourer dashed into one of the foreman's tents.

"Oh, Mister Boss!" cried the Mongolian, "Chung Lee, him stuck in mud up to his ankles!"

"In the mud up to his ankles?" roared the boss. Why the deuce don't he get out?"

"Oh, Mister Boss, him upside down!"—New York Times.

Pays To Be Polite

The other day at the front of a hand grenade whizzed toward an Irishman's head. Pat dodged it with a low bow and it went by, taking off the head of a man behind him.

"Faith," exclaimed Pat, "we never knew a man to lose anything by being polite!"—Tit-Bits.

The Cub Reporter

"Never state as a fact anything you are not certain about," the great editor warned the new reporter, "or you will get us into libel suits. In such cases use the words 'alleged,' 'claimed,' 'reported,' 'rumored,' and so on."

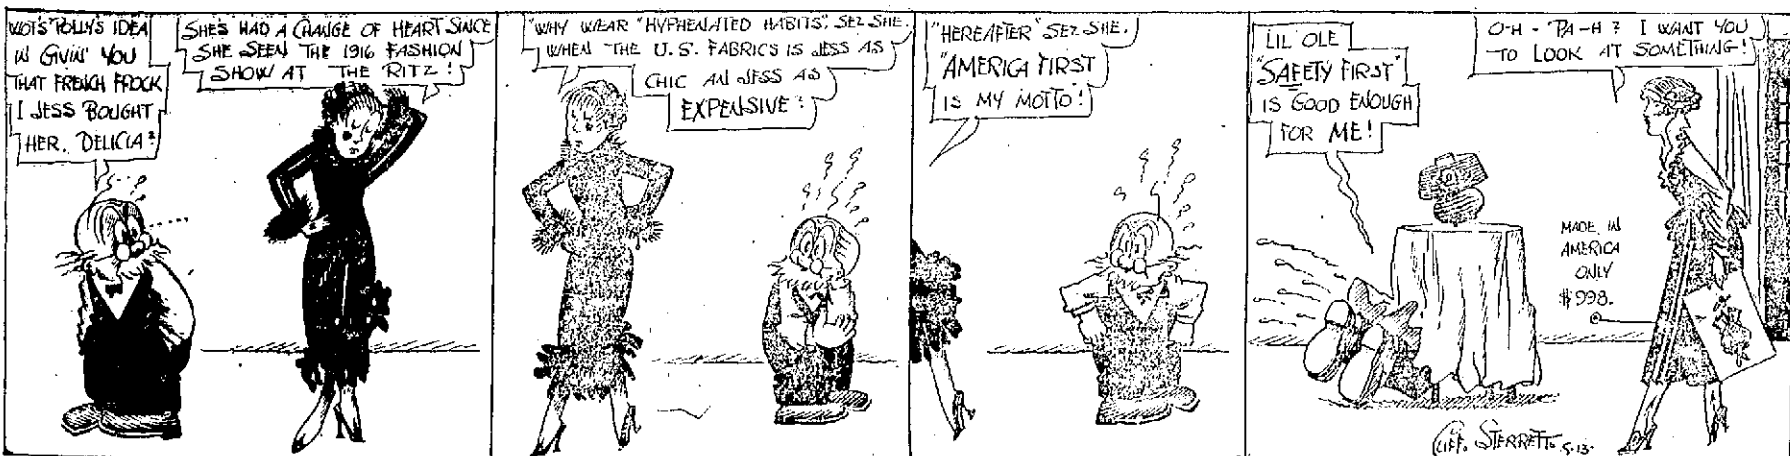

And then this paragraph appeared in the society notes of the paper: "It is rumored that a card party was given yesterday by a number of reputed ladies. Mrs. Smith, gossip says, was hostess. It is alleged that the guests, with the exception of Mrs. Bolinger, who says she hails from Leavitt's Junction, were all from here. Mrs. Smith claims to be the wife of Archibald Smith, the so-called 'Honest Man' trading on Key street."—Woodworkers' Record.

JOHN ROBINSON CIRCUS IN TOWN; PARADE IS HELD

Two Performances Will Be Given

This is circus day! Old as well as young hearts thumped joyously today as John Robinson's Ten Big Shows arrived here early this morning from Ironton, and hardly had the sun peeped over the Eastern horizon than the work of detaining at Sixteenth and Findlay streets was well under way.

In a comparatively short time the lot was converted into a sea of canvas, and circus day was here in all its glory. Big crowds, of course, were on hand to watch the unloading, always an interesting feature of any circus.

The first glimpse of the magnificent parade, a feature of the Robinson show, was in evidence at 10:45, and thousands lined the down-town streets to view it.

The afternoon performance begins sharply at 2 o'clock. Doors open at 1 p. m. The evening performance begins at 8 tonight. Doors open at 7.

Reserved seats are on sale at Wurst Bros.' stand at same price as on show grounds.

At Ironton Tuesday the John Robinson circus parade was combined with the opening parade of the Apple Show and it proved to be one of the finest ever witnessed in that city. Concerning the Robinson feature of the parade, the Ironton Register Tuesday night said: "And when this brilliant ensemble had been reviewed by the tremendous crowds that crowded the streets and left barely room for the big parade to march through, there began another parade, which though entirely different in character, was just as magnificent. Always a big feature, the John Robinson Circus parade today, by special effort of the managers, surpassed itself.

It would be an idle waste of time to attempt to describe the parade and to convey an idea of its sheer stupendity. Every feature that could possibly have been brought into a parade was there. The funny clowns made you laugh, the beautiful spectacles elicited your admiration, the stirring music of the screen brass bands thrilled you with emotion and as some new feature more magnificent than any that had preceded it filed past in the long array, you could but stand dumb with wonder to contemplate the prospect of more magnificence. Time and time again the crowds on the line of march cheered some special feature and the paraders remarked that 'it seemed that everybody was so happy that everybody else was, that everybody was happy too.'

BAKER EXPLAINS INCREASE IN THE PRICE OF BREAD

One of Portsmouth's leading wholesale bakers, Jacob Pfau, Eleventh street, stated Tuesday that he could see no possible reason for the public to become excited over the raise in the price of bread, and cakes. Mr. Pfau said that flour was costing the bakers $4.00 more than formerly and that the increase cost of bread would bring in only $2.50 per barrel, leaving them to hold the sack for $1.50. "Not only has flour raised to an abnormal price," said Mr. Pfau, "but lard, butter and sugar, to say nothing of eggs and other ingredients that enter into the baking business, have gone out of sight. We are not attempting to control prices—simply reserving the right to make a living. We have been losing money for quite a while, and surely no one can honestly find fault with us in our efforts to make an honest livelihood."

Continuing Mr. Pfau said: "Food prices have been raised continuously for some time and no great hullabaloo has been created. Butchers are asking more for their meat and lard—they have to, because they are paying a great advance on the hoof. Shoes have been raised in price, clothing is high—and why the bakers should be censured for raising their prices is beyond my reasoning power. For the past 18 months we have been serving the good people with their bread and cakes at a loss. If we are to continue in business we must have a little more for our products. I believe every man, woman and child in the city know me. I believe they at least think I am an honest citizen. Many have been helped by me—a fact of which I am proud. Those who know me at least, I am sure, know that my part in raising the price of my products was done only after I had given the question serious consideration and that I acted simply in defense of my business and family. I would like to be able to give bread away, but unfortunately I am not so situated as to do that. I have to work hard—surely I am entitled to a living. For the past two years I have longed for an automobile, but I am still longing. People who know Jake know that if I was able to buy one I would have had it long ago. All we bakers want is a living—an honest one."

To Meet Friday

The ladies of Vienna Auxiliary of Vienna Camp Sons of Veterans will meet in regular session Friday evening, Sept. 15 at the home of Mrs. Crawford, 1813 Fifth street. Members of Vienna camp will also attend and a good meeting is anticipated. Ladies eligible, desiring to join the auxiliary are cordially invited to come to this meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our most sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness in the sad bereavement of our dear son and brother, Jas. H. Arthur and to Rev. Charles R. Oakley and Rev. McCormick of Buena Vista for their consoling words; to the Jr. O. U. A. M., also for the beautiful floral offering, and the undertaker.

The Movies

At the Arcana

Today is shown the last chapter of "Peg O' the Ring" in two reels entitled "Retribution." If you have seen other chapters of this serial be sure and see the final chapter tonight.

Today is the starting time of that new 20 week serial "Liberty" which will be at the Arcana every Wednesday in two reels. "Liberty" will be presented through a brilliant and notable cast headed by Marie Walcamp, Jack Holt and Eddie Polo. Supported by others almost as well known including Bertram Grassby, G. Raymond Nye, L. M. Wells, Maude Emory and hundreds of expert rough riders and trained military men. In the serial—Mexican border raids; thrilling dare-devil deeds of heroism; love interest that alone would make a great picture; American soldiers; Texas rangers; Mexican bandits; a lavish production never surpassed in thrills, realism or tense human interest. "She Was Some Vampire" is a Joker comedy of many funny incidents.

Special Train To Ironton Will Have Two Sections

The special train to Ironton Thursday evening will be run in two sections, according to an announcement made Wednesday by R. E. Scott, passenger agent, Norfolk and Western railroad.

There will be sufficient room for everyone desiring to make the trip. The trains will leave the local depot at 6:15 o'clock and leave Ironton at 10:30.

Those expecting to make the trip are asked to get their tickets at the city ticket office, Sixth and Chillicothe streets, today or tomorrow. By doing this, Mr. Scott says the usual jam at the depot just before the time for departure will be eliminated.

Will Inspect Bridge

John J. Harper, county engineer, went to Wheelersburg Wednesday morning to inspect the concrete bridge which Contractor H. E. Addis is constructing for the county. Complaints have been received from the Wheelersburg citizens that the work is being unnecessarily delayed. Mr. Harper said that he would investigate and see what was delaying the work. The bridge is located between the village and the Norfolk and Western depot.

THIS WAS GOOD NEWS FOR THE KIDDIES

St. Mary's parochial school was dismissed at noon to give the pupils an opportunity of attending Robinson's circus.

Si Straus To Assist In Children's Parade

Arrangements for the Children's parade, one of the big events of the Greater 1916 Korn Carnival, will be made Wednesday at a special meeting of the teachers of the public schools, which will be held at the High School building.

Si Straus has been appointed by General Chairman Albert F. MacIntyre to assist Prof. Frank Appel in the formation of the parade.

N. & W. AFTER NEW CINCY ENTRANCE

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 13.—There is a report in Cincinnati railroad circles that the Norfolk and Western railway is seeking to abandon its truckage rights into Cincinnati over the Cincinnati, Lebanon and Northern and secure an entrance of its own to the Queen City from there, Ohio, nine miles from Cincinnati.

The objection of the Norfolk and Western to the present entrance is said to be the tunnel and the grade of the Cincinnati, Lebanon and Northern.

REV. ALFRED HUGHES NEW COLLEGE HEAD

Columbus, Sept. 13.—At a meeting held in Cincinnati, trustees of Moore's Hill college, Moore's Hill, Ind., elected Rev. Alfred F. Hughes, pastor of the Third Avenue Methodist church, to the presidency of the institution, according to advices received in Columbus Tuesday.

The length of the term is two years. No successor will be named for the Third Avenue church until the Ohio Methodist Episcopal conference convenes in Zanesville, September 27.

Rev. Alfred F. Hughes was formerly pastor of Bigelow M. E. church here.

Bicycle Is Stolen

A bicycle belonging to Jackson Cropper, real estate man, was stolen from the rear porch of his home, No. 1204 Eleventh street, Tuesday evening. The police were notified.

GARDEN PARTY

Thursday, September 14th, from 2:30 o'clock to 5 o'clock. A garden party will be held at the home of Mrs. George Appel. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Home for Aged Women. A large crowd is looked for and a neat sum is expected to be cleared for the Home.

EVANGELICAL BROTHERHOOD MEETS

The German Evangelical Brotherhood held a rousing meeting Tuesday evening with a large number in attendance. Will Haebebeck was elected delegate to the National Federation of Evangelical Brotherhoods' meeting to be held in St. Louis October 8 and 9. The entertainment committee is making arrangements for different entertainments that will feature the winter meetings of the order. The drinking fountain, recently ordered by the brotherhood, has been installed.

Adams Being Guarded

Sam Adams, a ballplayer, who suffered concussion of the brain in a feroed concussion of the brain in a falling down a stairway at Dick Thornton's saloon recently, became violent at Hempstead hospital and had to be guarded throughout Tuesday night. Officer Clements has been assigned to that duty.

Widow Of Flood Refugee Here Looking For Sister

Mrs. Elsie Hatfield, a young widow and Cabin Creek, W. Va., flood refugee, called at police headquarters early Wednesday morning with her little baby and asked aid in locating a sister, Mrs. Virgie Murphy. She said her sister and husband, Ed Murphy, came to Portsmouth two weeks ago with a family named Burns for the purpose of seeking employment, having lost all of their belongings in the recent big flood and burst up Cabin Creek. She herself arrived here on an N. & W. train Tuesday evening and said some family near the depot provided her and child with lodging.

The police are at a loss how to locate the woman's relatives and really believe they are the same who, after spending a night at a downtown hotel, left Portsmouth for Cincinnati.

Red Cross Degree

An elaborate musical program will be given in connection with the conferring of the Red Cross degree upon a class of seven candidates by Calvary Commandery, Knights Templar, No. 13 Friday evening, September 15. Mrs. Samuel Rice will act as organist and Mrs. Norma Harek Young, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowry and Adam Burkel will sing several selections.

Brass Thieves Busy

Brass thieves broke into the full inventory. The police were notified.

Portsmouth Carpet Cleaning Company's plant at No. 1219 Chillicothe street, Monday night and stripped a portable cleaning machine engine of its oil cups, spark plugs, switch, etc.

The machine is the one the company carries on the street in going from house to house cleaning carpets. Entrance to the plant was gained by tearing off several boards on the rear side of the building. So far as known nothing else was taken although the company has not made any care-

Ironton, Keep Eye On Kohorts; To Visit Apple Show Thursday

A call to arms has been issued upon the Ironton Apple Show at that hour and the fortress of Fun and Frolic is expected to be reached by seven o'clock. The heavy artillery and the River City band will precede the infantry and will sweep the streets of the Boath City.

The River City band has been engaged to make the trip. Probably fifteen hundred Portsmouth citizens will make the trip to Ironton on the special Thursday evening.

WOMEN CROSS CONTINENT ON THEIR MOTORCYCLES

San Diego, Calif., Sept. 13.—After a motorcycle trip of more than 4,000 miles, Misses Adelina and Augusta Van Buren arrived here yesterday from New York from where they started July 5. They will make the return trip by train.

The two motorcyclists traveled via Buffalo, Chicago, Omaha and Denver, to Colorado Springs, where they climbed Pike's Peak on their machines, a feat never before accomplished by women, it is said. Their route carried them on to Glenwood Springs and Salt Lake City and across the Great American Desert. They were on the desert eleven days.

Napoleon's Peepholes.
A curious Napoleonic relic still preserved in St. Helena is a pair of shutters, each with a peephole. St. Helena was strongly garrisoned in Napoleon's time for divers reasons, and the British soldiers exercised on Deadwood plain, close to Longwood.

Napoleon liked to look at them, but did not like them to look at him; hence those two shutters, one with a hole on a level with his eye while standing and the other with a hole adapted to his vision while seated.

Thackeray on Fame.

"Thackeray's literary work did not help him much when he sought to enter the house of commons. The Rev. Frederick Meyrick in his 'Memories of Oxford' tells of a dinner given when he stood as a Liberal for that city. 'I remarked to him that he must be a special experience, as he was known by fame to most of those whose names he canvassed. 'Now,' he said, looking up at his knife and fork and looking up at a boxer, 'there was only one man among all that I went to see who had heard my name before, and he was a circulating librarian. Such is mortal fame.' That was in 1857, ten years after the publication of 'Vanity Fair.'"

Auto Parade Committee Will Meet Tonight

Chairman J. F. Taylor, of the Korn Carnival automobile parade committee, has called a meeting for this evening at 7:30 at the board of trade office. All automobile agents are requested to attend.

Real Activity At Otway

The little village of Otway, which was swept by a disastrous conflagration last spring, is being rapidly rebuilt, according to J. E. Blackburn, merchant, who was in the city Tuesday on business. Mr. Blackburn says that two homes have already been completed and four others are in the course of completion. All of the new buildings are substantial. The new homes completed are:

Joel Gillett and Mrs. George Coy. The four now being erected belong to Dr. J. E. Gordon, J. R. Walsh, George Walsh and Mrs. Henry Johnson. Besides the homes, J. R. Walsh is building a new store and William Freeman is erecting a new livery barn.

Work on the new $12,000 school building is being rapidly pushed. Other structures are being planned, Mr. Blackburn says.

AUTO HIT ENGINE

An automobile driven by Charles Dixon, of Rhodes avenue, New Boston, collided with the dinky engine operated by the Peabody Brick company on Rhodes avenue, in East Portsmouth, Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Dixon was not hurt, but one light of his machine was smashed and the radiator was damaged.

Mr. Dixon recently drove his car to Iowa without the slightest kind of an accident. He covered 3,728 miles on the trip.

CONDITION SERIOUS

Homer Martin, the buckster wagon driver, who was stabbed near the heart by Ernest Seaff, a teamster, when he found him in his home with Mrs. Seaff Monday night, continues in a precarious condition at Hempstead hospital. Martin was restless throughout Tuesday night and his condition was reported unchanged Wednesday morning.

COUNCILMEN ARRESTED

Ironton, Sept. 13.—There was quite a little stir around police headquarters, Tuesday evening, caused by the arrest of Councilmen W. D. Kelly and Hugh McLahey, the former being charged with intoxication and the latter on a charge of intoxication and interfering with an officer.

Chaplain of the Commons.
The chaplain who opens the daily sessions of the British house of commons appears always in white silk robes and white kid gloves. He enters the chamber with the speaker and each bows twice to the house as they proceed to the table. Then, as they stand together, the speaker on the right, the chaplain reads the special prayers appointed for the occasion, the members also standing. When he has finished the chaplain retires, walking backward and bowing as he leaves the chamber. As he passes out an attendant calls, "Prayers are over," and the house proceeds to the transaction of business.—New York Sun.

Out It Came.

Man on the Desk.—This is an announcement of a wedding, isn't it?

"Sure."

"Well, why do you say 'Please omit flowers'?" That goes with a funeral notice.

"Well, I showed it to a man who knows the chap who's going to marry the girl, and he said he was a dead one."

"No matter what he said. You are not the funny man on this paper. Cut that out!"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Horse Jump Record.
According to the latest published of actual figures on the subject, the record high jump for horses is held by Heathcubloom, an American horse, with a jump of eight feet two inches. Confidence, a Canadian bay gelding, is credited by the same records with a jump of eight feet one-half inch at Otawa in 1913.
